AT LEAST 30 KILLED IN ODISHA TRAIN COLLISION

B'luru-Howrah Exp rams into derailed bogies of Coromandel Exp

OVER 30 passengers are believed to have died and hundreds injured in one of the most horrific railway accidents when the Coromandel Superfast Express derailed and was rammed by an express train coming from opposite direction at Bahanaga railway station in Balasore district on Friday.

The accident took place around 7 pm after the Howrah-Chennai Coromandel Superfast Express reportedly derailed and its coaches landed on a parallel track. The capsized coaches were then rammed by Bengaluru-Howrah Express at Bahanaga, about 180 km from here. Bahanaga station comes under Bhadrak section of the South Eastern Railway.

Under the impact of the collision, at least 15 Coromandel coaches went into a tailspin and capsized. The casualties could well rise as rescue teams found evacuation extremely tough with passengers crushed under the capsized coaches.

The train which bore the brunt of the impact has a passenger capacity of 1,516. Going by preliminary reports, the toll could go well beyond 30. Another source said the number may reach 50.

The Odisha government and Indian Railways mounted a massive rescue operation but found it challenging to move the injured from the site to different hospitals in Balasore given the rising number of injured passengers. Railway sources said the Coromandel on the Up track derailed and its capsized coaches fell on the Down line. CONTINUED ON: P7

Finally, cabinet nod for 5 guarantees; 'Shakti' for women from June 11

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah and his cabinet on Friday took a crucial decision on the process of rolling out the five guarantees that Congress promised during the poll campaign.

After a marathon four-hour cabinet meeting, Siddaramaiah asserted that all five guarantees will be implemented within this financial year.

The guarantees promised are: 'Griha Jyothi' (Up to 200 units of electricity free for every household); 'Griha Laxmi' (Rs 2,000 per month for every woman head of households across the state); 'Anna Bhagya' (10 kg of foodgrains per person per household belonging to BPL category); 'Shakthi' (Free travel in government-owned non-luxury buses for women within Karnataka); and 'Yuva Nidhi' (Rs 3,000 per month for unemployed graduates and Rs 1,500 per month for unemployed diploma-holders for up to two years or until they get jobs, whichever comes first).

The CM said 'Shakthi' will come into force on June 11, while 'Griha Jyothi' and 'Anna Bhagya' on July 1. 'Griha Lakshmi' will be launched on August 15 and applications for beneficiaries will open from June 15 to July 15. 'Yuva Nidhi' will be rolled out for graduates and diploma-holders who remain unemployed even six months after completing their courses. The scheme will be applicable to students completing graduation and diploma courses from the academic year 2022-23. "The beneficiary should be a graduate of this academic year and should not have a job up to 180 days," he said, adding that 'Yuva Nidhi' will be applicable for transgenders too. CONTINUED ON: P6

ESCOM SHOCKER

Pay more for power from July 1

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

ON a day when Chief Minister Siddaramaiah announced that people will get free electricity with riders, the Energy Department on Friday issued an order revising power tariff in the state.

Accordingly, Bescom consumers will have to pay an additional fuel adjustment cost of 51 paise per unit from July 1 to September. From October 1 to December 31, it will be revised to 50 paise per unit.

The department said that it is part of an annual revision made to recover the fuel adjustment cost. The order applies to all Escoms. As per the order, the fuel adjustment cost will be from July 1 to December 31, 2023, with changes in adjustment cost in September. The order stated that the tariff revision order issued on May 13 remains unaltered. This means, consumers will have to pay more from July 1. P5

Miscreants surrender 140 weapons in Manipur

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR
@ Guwahati

HOURS after Home Minister Amit Shah's appeal, miscreants in Manipur surrendered over 140 weapons they had looted from police stations and battalions, officials said on Friday.

After concluding his four-day visit to the state on Thursday, Shah had made an appeal to the miscreants to surrender the looted weapons. He had also warned the police would launch a combing operation from Friday and those found with weapons would be prosecuted.

Self-loading rifles, carbine, AK and INSAS rifles, light machine guns, pistols, M16 rifles, smoke gun/tear gas, sten gun and grenade launcher were among the weapons surrendered.

However, the surrendered weapons are only a fraction of the official account of looted arms. On May 8, Manipur Chief Minister N Biren Singh had revealed that 1,041 weapons and 7,460 cartridges were looted. He said 214 weapons and 4,273 bullets were recovered later. There were several other incidents of looting of arms and ammunition.

Meanwhile, a statement issued by the chief minister's office said at least 98 people lost their lives and 310 others were injured in the ethnic violence in Manipur. A total of 37,450 people are in 272 relief camps at present, it added.

Opposition upset as panel backs sedition law

SHRUTI KAKKAR @New Delhi

APPALLED at the Law Commission of India recommending the retention of the colonial sedition law, the Opposition on Friday charged that the government wants to use its report to make it more draconian.

The panel recommended amending the law to enhance the prison term for offenders from three years to seven years, and incorporating a clause on the "tendency to incite violence" or causing public disorder, citing a Supreme Court verdict in the Kedar Nath case.

The tendency to incite violence would mean "mere inclination to incite violence or cause public order rather than proof of actual violence or imminent threat to violence", which would make the law more draconian.

In his pushback, Union law minister Arjun Ram Meghwal said the recommendations were persuasive but not binding, adding the final call would be taken only after consulting all the stakeholders.

The report said the sedition law is the traditional penal mechanism to safeguard the unity and integrity on the country, adding it seeks to prevent violent, illegal, and unconstitutional overthrow of a democratically elected government. CONTINUED ON: P12

COMMISSION'S POSITION

Sedition is a reasonable restriction for the fundamental right to freedom of speech and expression

WHITEFIELD-KR PURA LINE: HIGH METRO RIDERSHIP CLEANS UP AIR

Compared to May 2022, 'good' days were 22 against 14

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

THE impact of the Whitefield Kadugodi to KR Pura stretch on the environment is beginning to reflect on its surroundings.

Though not discernible in the initial few weeks after the launch on March 25, there has been a marked improvement in air quality in May, says the Karnataka State Pollution Control Board (KSPCB).

The daily ridership on this stretch ranges between 26,000 and 28,000.

Member Secretary, KSPCB, Girish HC told TNIE, "We classify pollution levels on an index of 0 to 400. Readings below 50 is said to have good air quality, 50 to 100 falling in the satisfactory range, 100 to 200 moderate level while above 200 in the index is poor."

For the KR Pura-Kadugodi stretch, the pollution readings are recorded at the Hebbal Continuous Air Quality monitoring station, its nearest point. "If you compare the readings available for May this year with May 2022, we notice 22 good days of the 31 this year compared with just 14 last year. We had 17 days in the satisfactory category last year which has come down to nine as the rest has moved to the better range," he said.

"Any infrastructure project pertaining to public transport is definitely beneficial to the environment in the long-run as it takes hundreds of vehicles off the roads," the Member Secretary added.

Asked about the patronage on the stretch, AS Shankar, Executive Director, Operations and Maintenance, BMRCL, said a total of 4,36,597 commuters used this stretch during the last fortnight (May 15 to 31). The highest ridership of 29,480 was recorded on May 24." He conceded the response has not been on expected lines.

BMRCL MD Anjum Parwez said when the 2.5km connectivity between KR Puram and Baiyappanahalli is completed, the ridership on the Extension line would average 1.25 lakh a day.

"At present, it is proving expensive for commuters if both Metro and feeder bus have to be used. The Metro ticket would be Rs 28 and then the bus fare would be Rs 20. There is also the reluctance to alight and change midway," he said.

On the status of ongoing work, he said track laying has been completed and signalling cables have been placed above. "Works are proceeding according to plans and we are looking at opening it anytime between July 15 and July 30," he said.

Open spaces at Kadugodi station to be closed

BMRCL MD Anjum Parwez said that the recent cases of leaking at Kadugodi Metro station was not from roofing but because of open spaces left for 6m on the platforms for ventilation. "Water entered the platforms through those spaces and went towards the escalators and stairs. We have decided to close this space at Kadugodi with Louvre windows so that light and air can enter but water can be kept out. At Nallurhalli station too, roofing will be done in the spaces between the buildings."

BEML wins bid for back-up coaches again

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

The rolling stock tender for 72 coaches (12 six-car train sets) was opened on Friday with BEML Ltd emerging as the lowest bidder, said Metro sources. These were tenders called by BMRCL in April last year for the RV Road to Bommasandra Line as a back-up in case the contracted Chinese firm CRCC was unable to supply the 216 coaches promised by it.

A top Metro source said, "BEML (L-1) has quoted ₹10.6 crore per car as compared to the second placed ALSTOM (L-2) which has quoted ₹14.02 crore per car." This rate is clearly higher than the recent quote of ₹7.74 crore for a car specified by BEML for the 318 cars for the Underground corridor (Reach-6), ORR (Phase-2A) and Airport Line (Phase-2B), he pointed out.

The ₹1,578-crore contract for 216 coaches was signed in December 2019 by BMRCL with CRCC whose subsidiary Nanjing Puzhen Co. Ltd was supposed to deliver them. However, it faced issues in setting up a factory at Sri City in Andhra Pradesh to manufacture coaches.

Asked about the outcome of the back-up tender since the original contract too stands, BMRCL MD Anjum Parwez said, "We need to take a call on whether to go ahead. This will be based on the rates the L1 bidder has quoted in this and in the previous tender that they had bid for 318 coaches which was opened recently."

Power cuts cause Whitefield water woes

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

PARTS of Whitefield area are reeling under irregular water supply since April due to frequent power cuts in TK Halli and Tataguni pumping stations of the Bengaluru Water Supply and Sewerage Board (BWSSB), forcing residents to depend on water tankers.

A senior citizen from Prashanth Layout Resident Welfare Association (RWA) in Whitefield said the situation has been the same over the last few years. "We have a Cauvery water connection. Still, we are forced to buy water from tankers. Once in five days, we get the tanker, and have to pay Rs 2,500 monthly," said another member from Prashanth Layout RWA.

The acute shortage has also led to groundwater exploitation.

At Ramagondanahalli, residents said BWSSB is yet to provide pipe water connection. Ramagondanahalli was merged with BBMP's Whitefield ward after delimitation.

The residents also complained that there is rampant borewell drilling by private players in Varthur Lake surrounding, which has led to groundwater depletion.

Activists suggested that focus should be on 'local water security' by restoring local watershed management and ensuring that rainwater recharges groundwater.

BWSSB Executive Engineer, Mirza Anwar, said, "BWSSB is facing a big challenge of frequent power cuts in both Tataguni, TK Halli pumping stations. Besides, there is a deficit of 600 MLD."

"BWSSB supplies 1,400 MLD of water to Bengaluru daily while the requirement is 2,000. Since Mahadevapura and KR Puram are at the tail end of the city, water pumping to downstream areas is impacted," said Anwar.

However, Rajshekhar A, chief engineer (Cauvery Water Maintenance), said that the power supply problem was only for three days in May at TK Halli, and then resolved. Since April, there have been no issues.

BBMP polls: Voters' list verification starts July 21

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

BRUHAT Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) is all set to start its election-related work after a letter from the Election Commission.

The Palike has started training Booth Level Officers (BLOs), Assistant Revenue Officers, and others. Their training will conclude on July 20.

The BLOs will be deployed for house-to-house verification of voters' lists from July 21 to August 21.

To remove discrepancies in electoral rolls, ensure good quality of photos, demarcating boundaries of polling stations, and other such aspects will be covered from 22 August to September 29.

The integrated draft rolls will be published on October 10. The window for filing objections will end on November 11. Disposal of claims and objections will be done on December 26, and the final electoral rolls will be published on January 5, 2024.

Regarding the controversy over NGOs hired for Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) activities, BBMP Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath said the revision work is sacrosanct and no official orders were issued for private players. It was alleged that the NGO staffers had obtained fake BLO cards.

An officer said like previous years, the verification of voters' list through house-to-house visits will be conducted only by authorised BLOs, and no NGOs or private players would be engaged.

TRAFFIC, ROAD WORKS PUT BRAKES ON CYCLING PLANS

PURAN CHOUDHARY @ Bengaluru

CYCLISTS complained that Bengaluru roads are unsafe for them and built for vehicles.

Activists and cyclists demanded that the government invest in bolstering cycling infrastructure. There are very few roads for bicycles, and most of them are incomplete. This forces cyclists to ride amid heavy vehicles facing the risk of accidents.

Sathya Sankaran, Bicycle Mayor of Bengaluru, told TNIE, "There is a lack of political will to make streets safe for cyclists. The government is hesitant to invest in road infrastructure to decongest roads and curb climate change."

The new government should pass the Active Mobility Bill for Karnataka that promotes inclusive development, he said.

Bengaluru has 92,458 and 16,42,994 registered cars and two-wheelers respectively, that jam the roads for other modes of transport.

The cycling tracks on the Outer Ring Road (ORR) were removed due to metro work. The tracks near the airport were also removed for road construction work.

"Bengaluru is an innovation hub, and so many expats come here. Why are we unable to use our technology to build more sustainable transport options?" he said, adding that when the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) floats tenders for any road construction or repairs, "they need to have provisions for cycling tracks, pedestrian and footpath spaces." He said the tracks are narrow and would not eat into the space. However, the government should give the required push.

Nihar Thakkar, co-founder, Urban Flow, had developed an artificial intelligence bicycle counter last year, one of its kind in India. The bicycle counter is fitted inside a digital signboard that counts the number of cyclists using the bicycle lane through the day. It resets at midnight and starts counting again. The counters were set on the ORR stretch, Whitefield and Yelahanka.

Thakkar, 19, said there has been a decline in the number of cycles post-pandemic. "It has become increasingly harder to ride cycles because of tremendous traffic and construction activities."

03RD June : I want to say one last word about this week's theme - telescopes. If you look at magazine photos of deep space they are often brightly-coloured and that leads a lot of people to expect to see something which isn't there. Many astronomers use computers to colour-enhance their pictures, which I think is a shame. The simple, silvery light of the stars is far more wonderful.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
If you're taking time off, it looks very much as if all leisure pursuits should be competitive. The fact is that there is no satisfaction as great as that gained from coming first or, at least, from doing better than you've ever done before. If you have a strength, then it's your willingness to deal with detail.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
It's time for some of your typical intuitive foresight. You see, it's important to broaden your horizons, and even if there are some options that you have always shunned, they are almost certainly worth considering now. You might not go for what's on offer, and something completely different could catch your eye!

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
Romantic attachments could take an intense turn, which will no doubt be deeply satisfying. However, you may be inclined to judge others a little too harshly. The moment you start comparing one person unfavourably with another, you're in danger of letting your personal feelings interfere with the truth.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
This may not be the best time to lay down the law, for partners, colleagues and rivals have strong opinions of their own. It's much better to ask them what they think, and turn this to your own advantage. You might be able to use their arguments to show them why they should take more notice of you!

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
This should be a busy period, and time set aside for relaxation may be curtailed by additional duties incurred as partners, children or friends present you with fresh demands. Actually, you could be happier to be active than left with time on your hands.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
There is no need to be more shy and retiring than usual. In fact, you may dust down your neglected or forgotten creative skills and theatrical qualities. Life should be approached in a spirit of spontaneity, youthful vigour and a willingness to take whatever comes.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
You may now have the determination to implement family changes or home improvements which once seemed beyond your power. Even hopes which you thought would always remain as fantasies may now be put into action. And about time too, some people would say!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You might feel as if you're facing an uphill struggle. If you don't seem to be making any headway, it's probably because you have not done enough to persuade other people that they have just failed to appreciate the truth, and that you are right. It's never too late to have another go!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
It's not a bad moment for shopping trips, although there seems to be a planetary law in operation which says that whatever money you have when you leave home will be spent by the time you return. You don't have to give in to it, though. A simple solution is to keep your wallet tight shut!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
A sociable Moon is just the tonic you need to lift your morale and enable you to believe in yourself. If you should have moments of self-doubt, don't ignore them, but make use of the opportunity to discover exactly why your confidence has slipped.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Relatively secretive stars might force you to adjust your social priorities. The most pleasant gatherings will be discreet and involve just one or two favoured people. It's an enlightening moment to pursue any spiritual or mystical interests.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
You'll be on top form socially. Your drawback may just be a return to your natural shyness but, at times like this, you seem to be confident enough for it not to matter. Incidentally, Venus' current movement signifies high romantic hopes. But can they be met? Well, only time will tell!

Three roomates injure him with beer bottles

PRAVEEN KUMAR @ Bengaluru

A 33-year-old man was attacked with beer bottles for expressing his happiness over Congress' victory in the Assembly elections.

VK Ranganath, a food delivery agent, had thrown a party on becoming a father.

Three of his roommates attended the party, and while drinking, the discussion veered towards politics, and specifically about the recently-concluded elections which Congress won with a thumping majority.

The others, staunch BJP supporters, were miffed and attacked him with beer bottles. Ranganath, who had filed a complaint on Monday, is undergoing treatment. The Amruthahalli police have registered a case under IPC 324 and other relevant sections against Madhusudhan, Manoj Kumar and B Prasad. Kumar and Prasad restrained him as Madhusudhan rained blows with beer bottles. Two of them have been arrested.

He was staying with the accused near the Eshwar Temple in Amruthahalli.

Ranganath said he needed six stitches on his neck and is out of danger. "I am now staying separately. The other roommates are also food delivery agents," he said.

A bleeding Ranganath was helped by another friend to reach hospital.

"The two arrested were released on station bail. The victim and the accused have been staying together over the last six to seven months. Search is on for the third accused," said an officer.

3 HELD FOR MURDERING ELDERLY WOMAN

Bengaluru: Three, including a plumber, were arrested for murdering an 82-year-old home-alone woman in Nagpura in Mahalakshmi Layout. The victim, Kamala, was killed on May 27 at her house near the police station. The plumber had undertaken repair work in Kamala's house three months back and was aware that she was staying alone with jewellery in possession. He then hatched a plot to rob her along with two other friends. The accused are identified as R Ashok (40), the plumber, residing at Laggere, M Siddaraju (34) of Kempegowda Layout and C Anjana Murthy (33) of Kamakshipalya. The trio reportedly absconded to Mysuru post murder, from where they were arrested. Apparently, the accused had loans they were unable to clear, as a result of which they decided to commit robberies and thefts. They recced near the victim's residence before executing the crime. On May 27th, Siddaraju and Murthy visited her in the guise of tenants, as a portion of the building was vacant. They asked to rent the place for a biscuit godown, which Kamala refused. In the evening, Ashok went to her house, and she opened the door since she knew him, following which the other two barged in. The assailants smothered her after tying her hands and legs, and escaped with her two gold chains and a pair of bangles. Kamala was staying alone after her husband, Nagaraj, died in October last year. Her three children reside in different parts of the city. ENS

HC sets aside Mysuru court order against cop

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court has set aside an order of taking cognisance by the Mysore JMFC-111 court against IPS officer Abhinav Khare, who was accused of assaulting a businessman. The court ordered that the complainant is at liberty to file a proper protest petition against the 'B' report.

Khare was an SP of Mysuru district in 2015, when a businessman, TC Rajendra, filed a complaint accusing the officer of kicking him in the SP's office on March 5, 2015. Rajendra alleged that the SP had summoned him, though there was no case against him and asked him to settle the money he reportedly owed to a woman. The Nazarbad police, who had registered a case against the SP based on the businessman's complaint, had filed a 'B' report, giving the SP a clean chit.

Rajendra then filed a protest petition challenging the 'B' report and the JMFC court took cognisance and issued a summons to the IPS officer. Seeking to quash this order, the officer approached the High Court. The counsel appearing for IPS officer submitted that the magistrate of the JMFC court 'committed an error in taking cognisance' and had passed the order 'without judicial mind', as the protest petition was filed by the advocate and not the complainant. Further, it was contended that the officer was on leave when the incident took place and the question of him assaulting Rajendra does not arise. Taking cognisance without obtaining sanction is illegal, it was argued.

Rajendra's counsel submitted that the IPS officer had no authority to summon his client as he had no jurisdiction over Mysuru city and the question of obtaining sanction does not arise as the petitioner himself submitted that he was on leave on the day of the incident.

The court observed that the offence committed by the petitioner does not fall under the discharging of official duty to say sanction is required. The contention of the petitioner's counsel and the SPP is not acceptable, it added.

"The protest petition filed by the advocate for the complainant cannot be accepted as a complaint and the Magistrate cannot rely upon the protest petition for the purpose of taking cognisance and it cannot be treated as a complaint. Therefore, on this ground, the cognisance taken by the learned Magistrate against the petitioner is liable to be set aside," the HC ruled, allowing the petition in part.

"The matter is remitted back to the Magistrate with a liberty to the respondent to file proper protest petition signed by the respondent and the Magistrate is at liberty to proceed in accordance with law," Justice K Natarjan ordered.

Central prison declared cancer-free after camp

NAMRATA SINDWANI @ Bengaluru

A cancer screening camp was organised at Parappana Agrahara Central Prison ahead of Cancer Survivors Day on June 4. No inmates were diagnosed with cancer.

"Prisoners are usually accommodated in closed spaces which lack proper hygiene. They are largely ignored in discussions pertaining to healthcare rights and personal hygiene," said Anitha Rao of Sakriya Charitable Trust.

The surroundings increase chances of infections, and therefore, the screening camps, organised by Karkinos Healthcare in association with Sakriya Charitable Trust, helps to identify those who have either developed cancer or are at a higher risk, Rao explained.

To ensure good menstrual hygiene among women inmates, the organisers distributed reusable sanitary napkins and menstrual cups. Rao spoke to 300 women inmates and found that they were using low-quality sanitary pads. Over 1,100 cancer risk assessments were done for breast, oral, cervical, lung, prostate, along with screening for non-communicable diseases. About 113 women were screened for cervical cancer.

Chief Medical Officer (CMO) at Central Prison, Dr Harshwardhan, said that prison inmates are vulnerable to develop cancer. He said the camp is a step towards early detection and ensuring overall healthcare of the inmates.

Additional Director General of Police (prison and correctional services), Manish Kharbikar, stated that around 5,000 inmates are housed in the Bengaluru prison, which is one-third of the total inmate population in Karnataka. "The prison hospital provide all basic healthcare facilities. However, such screening camps help to give specialised healthcare to prison inmates," he said and said that more special camps for various ailments will be organised in future.

'CAN'T ALLOW ANYONE TO DISTURB HARMONY'

A day after an incident of moral policing in Mangaluru, retired Superintendent of Police SK Umesh said that such perpetrators violate law and take undue advantage of their acquaintance with some police staffers. "If the police fail to take action, such incidents will continue to occur. Their action will set a precedent," said Umesh.

Former Backward Classes Commission chairman, CS Dwarakanath stated the government has to warn such people. "They are disturbing the harmony. Legal action should be taken against them and sent to jail. People expect that the new government will take strict action in this regard," said Dwarakanath.

Former Lokayukta Justice Santosh Hegde said, "No matter what their beliefs and customs are, attempts to strain communal harmony cannot be allowed." He said that he will not volunteer to give any suggestions to the government, but will consider helping if they approach.

Lavanya Ballal, a politician from coastal Karnataka, said that she has sought the intervention of Home Minister Dr G Parameshwara regarding the incident. "The minister has informed there will be zero tolerance towards moral policing," she said.

Kavitha Reddy, general secretary, Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee, appealed to the government to tackle divisiveness in the name of religion, attacks on minority community in the name of 'love jihad' and bringing unrest in society. "We will request the government to remove the hijab ban and allow personal freedom as per the Constitution. Online abuse to spread hatred has to be dealt with strongly."

'Moral policing': Minor among seven held

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mangaluru

MANGALURU city police have arrested seven persons, including a minor, in connection with the case of 'moral policing' at Someshwar Beach on Thursday. The arrested are Yathish and Bhavish from Bastipadpu, and Jeetu, Sachin, Suhan and Akhil from Talapady, who have been booked for rioting and attempt to murder. Mangaluru City Police Commissioner Kuldeep Kumar R Jain told reporters that more suspects are yet to be arrested and three teams are working on it. "We will ensure that such cases do not recur. Police presence will be increased on beaches and our personnel will patrol beaches and other public places," he said.

Three men and three of their women friends, students of a private college in Mangaluru and belonging to different faiths, were at the beach, when at around 7.20pm, a group of 10-15 people came and asked them for their names and ID cards. The accused later abused and beat up the three youth with sticks, belts, and stones.

A police patrol team rushed to the spot and shifted the victims to the hospital.

Yuva Nidhi, Shakti will help youth, women chase their dreams

Scheme will make youngsters feel government is with them, say experts

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah announces the implementation of Congress' five guarantees after a cabinet meeting in Bengaluru on Friday | NAGARAJA GADEKAL

TWO of the guarantees of the Siddaramaiah government, Yuva Nidhi and Shakti, will have a big positive impact on the communities that they are targeted at, experts opined. Under Yuva Nidhi, an unemployed graduate will get Rs 3,000 per month and unemployed diploma holders Rs 1,500, while Shakti allows free travel for all women in government buses.

"Youngsters who are just out of college and want to take up competitive exams can take the risk now as the government will fund them for two years. Earlier, such youth from lower middle-class and poor families had to depend mainly on their parents or work with private firms for stipend to chase their dreams. There are a lot of such students who stay in their community hostels in cities and prepare for competitive examinations. Many come out with flying colours, cracking SDA/FDA and even KAS examinations. Now young girls too can put in efforts without depending on their families," a KAS officer said.

Sociologist Nagesh Kalenahalli said the guarantee for the unemployed youth has been borrowed from abroad, especially welfare states. "With this, the youth will have a feeling that the government is with them," he added.

In the eighties, companies employed new graduates on a temporary basis with nominal stipend and absorbed them after they acquired the required skills. But as there is a scarcity of jobs, both in private and government sectors, the government scheme will help the youth. But whether the money is being spent on a good cause should be monitored and the youth should be made accountable for the taxpayers' money, said Venkatesh, an industrialist in Peenya. He also suggested that the focus should be on imparting skills to these youth.

The Shakti scheme would allow rural women mobility as they can visit village weekly fairs to buy farm equipment, seeds and other requirements, said Mallikarjuna Swamy, a social scientist.

Farmer HJ Padmaraju, who organises study trips for women self-help group (SHG) members from Tovinakere in Koratagere taluk, said the scheme will help women. The head of Hallisiri SHG in the village, Manjamma, is now planning to take the team to Putturu in Dakshina Kannada district for a Jackfruit Mela slated to be held on May 17 and 18 in a KSRTC bus as they don't have to pay any bus fare.

Some women are also planning trips and pilgrimages, especially to Dharmasthala. "What used to take months for planning could take just a few weeks now. But our women folk will not misuse the Shakti guarantee as they will be busy working in fields or factories and taking care of their children," said Rajappa Dalwai, playwright who champions women empowerment.

Cong guarantees make comeback tough for BJP, JDS

K SHIVA KUMAR @Mysuru

THE Congress party's announcement of freebies may help it dominate state's politics from now on. For opposition BJP and JDS, countering this is a big challenge as the Lok Sabha elections are due next year.

The Grand Old Party's five guarantees have been designed and announced not only to make a badly-needed comeback in the state but also to carry its victory march to four other states going to polls soon.

BJP's religious and Hindutva issues were successfully countered by Congress with its five guarantees aimed at the economic empowerment of people belonging to different castes and communities across the state. This announcement of guarantees has not only disarmed the opposition parties but has also made their task to make a comeback very tough.

BJP, which has spread its base across the country, has a Herculean task of repeating its performance of 2019 Lok Sabha elections, where it won 25 seats in the state, in the 2024 polls. Karnataka is considered BJP's gateway to South India.

Political commentator Muzafar Asadi said that the ruling Congress should keep up its tempo of anti-incumbency against BJP and strive to contain corruption at all levels of administration. It should leave no stone unturned in delivering the benefits of five guarantees to the people.

At the same time, the BJP should regroup and work on its social engineering. The party should work towards bringing back Veerashiva-Lingayats and other castes that have distanced from it. The saffron party should resolve leadership issues and put an end to internal squabbling, he said. He said BJP and JDS should have a common agenda to perform as an effective opposition and reclaim their positions in Karnataka politics.

Senior BJP leader G Madhusudhan said that his party will fight the coming elections on national issues and will raise the corruption cases in which some top Congress leaders are involved.

He said BJP will raise Congress leader Rahul Gandhi's statements against the Modi government during his visit to the US, his allegation that the minorities are living in fear in the country, SDPI-PFI links with terrorist organizations and other issues.

All women can travel free in non-luxury buses, says CM

THE government is likely to announce details regarding submission of applications for guarantees in the coming days. The CM, however, refrained from revealing the total expenses on the implementation of five guarantees.

Siddaramaiah said, "Under the 'Shakthi' scheme, all women can travel anywhere within Karnataka in non-luxury buses. This is also applicable for girl students." He said 50% of seats will be reserved for men in the bus. If seats reserved for women remain vacant, they will be given to men on payment of fares.

Asked whether the scheme is applicable to all women, including government employees, he said in a lighter vein: "It covers all women, including my wife... and the Chief Secretary (Vandita Sharma)!"

On 'Anna Bhagya', Siddaramaiah said it will be extended to all BPL and 'Antyodaya' card-holders. "The BJP government reduced the quantity of rice to 5 kg, which we are increasing. This cannot be implemented from this month as we have already dispatched the stocks," he said.

Most women in society do not have the decision-making power to be called the "head of the household". The scheme will fail if the criteria is not well defined. It will be like any other scheme which was started for a good cause, but failed to reach the most vulnerable group

200 units of power free, but with several riders

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

THE state government's guarantee of providing up to 200 units of free power can be availed from July 1 by households whose average power consumption is below 200 units. Another condition is that free power will not be more than 10 per cent of the average monthly consumption over last 12 months.

If the average power consumption is 50 units, the consumer will get free power up to 55 units. However, the consumer will have to pay the additional amount if the power consumption is above 55 units, explained an official.

"But free 200 unit power does not mean no bills. The consumer will have pay fixed charges, which is mandatory. The government has studied the Delhi model, but has not replicated it. It is a new model for Karnataka. Punjab also has a different model," the official said.

"If the power consumption is above 200 units, then the consumer will have to pay the entire bill. Such a consumer does not need any benefit as he is able to pay the bill. Hence, he should give his free power for the needy," the official added.

According to the state government's calculation, there are 2.14 crore power consumers in Karnataka and the average power consumption per household is an average of 53-54 units. This scheme will help 96 per cent consumers, said an official. Around four per cent of the consumers, whose average monthly consumption is above 200 units, will continue to pay the power bill.

Power expert M G Prabhakar said the introduction of riders now shows that this is not a guarantee scheme. "The government had not done the calculation before making the announcement. Implementing the 200 units free power to all can be done by giving more thrust on solar energy, where there will be no need to buy power."

It will be balance between welfare, economic development, says Patil

Bengaluru: Industries Minister MB Patil on Friday said the implementation of the Congress' five guarantees will not be a burden on the state exchequer, and the state government will function effectively by balancing both welfare of the people and economic development.Patil said the Congress has implemented the guarantees, which it promised during the Assembly election campaign, and this shows the pro-people commitment of the party. The implementation of guarantees will empower people, he said and termed the decision as historic. Within just two weeks of assuming office, the government implemented the guarantees, showing its will to serve people, the minister said.

The BJP, which was spreading false propaganda against the government, should learn to remain silent, he added. ENS

Oppn flays state govt, asks what's the cost of guarantees

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

SOON after Chief Minister Siddaramaiah announced roll-out of the five guarantees, Opposition parties put the state government on the mat for putting riders on the freebies.

Leading the attacks, JDS leader and former CM H D Kumaraswamy said the Congress has taken people for a ride with the conditional guarantees.

BJP state general secretary and MLC N Ravikumar said the various guarantees are causing confusion and will create problems. "How much will the guarantees cost? The government should disclose the cost. Will you use the money set aside for irrigation, roads, Metro and other development works?'' he said.

On Yuva Nidhi, he said, "How is it possible for someone who just passed out to get unemployment allowance? Shouldn't only those individuals who graduated and have gone a full year without finding work be regarded as unemployed? In reality, it ought to have been handed to them," he added.

BJP National General Secretary CT Ravi demanded a white paper on the state's economic status. "You promised 10 kg of rice per person per month free for everyone. In a video that Zameer Ahmed showed while going door to door, it was promised that if there are seven persons in a house, he will provide 70 kg rice. You just mentioned 10 kg for each family. Please specify if it is for a family or an individual," he said.

Countries like Venezuela had gone bankrupt by giving freebies. "We hope that our state will not be reduced to this. How much money has been invested in infrastructure, debt and resources of our state? What is the loan's interest rate? How much money is spent on wages and retirement benefits?" he said and emphasised that investing in infrastructure can help raise money, without which it will be impossible to implement the projects.

Appointing dist in-charge ministers next big challenge for Siddaramaiah

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah is likely to appoint district in-charge ministers soon, but the process may not be easy as some districts have more than one contender. It is interesting to see whether Siddaramaiah will keep Bengaluru in-charge or allot it to Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar, who has the Bengaluru development portfolio. Shivakumar could also be asked to take care of Ramanagara, as the Kanakapura Assembly constituency that he represents falls within the district.

Veterans, like Transport Minister Ramalingareddy, who was said to be not happy with the portfolio, and Energy Minister KJ George could vie for Bengaluru Urban district as they are from the city, sources said. Health and Family Welfare Minister Dinesh Gundurao, Revenue Minister Krishn Byre Gowda and Housing, Wakf and Minority Welfare Minister BZ Zameer Ahmed Khan, who too are from Bengaluru, may not stake claim to the post. Even Urban Development and Town Planning Minister Byrathi Suresh will not be interested, the sources added.

Mangaluru does not have any minister to represent it, and it could be assigned to one of the seven ministers from Bengaluru, most likely KJ George, the sources said.

Public Works Minister Satish Jarkiholi is likely to get Belagavi, while Women and Child Welfare Minister Laxmi R Hebbalkar, who too is from the district, is eyeing Hubballi-Dharwad. But she could face competition from Labour Minister and Kalaghatagi MLA Santhosh L Lad, who is a close confidant of the chief minister.

Forest Minister Eshwar Khandre and Municipal Administration Minister Rahim Khan are in the race for Bidar, while RDPR Minister Priyank Kharge and Medical Education Minister Dr Sharanaprakash Patil are seeking Kalaburagi.

Home Minister Dr G Parameshwara is likely to get Tumakuru district in-charge, but Cooperation Minister KN Rajanna, who is close to Siddaramaiah, too has also thrown in his hat. For Mysuru, there seems to be a fight between Animal Husbandry Minister K Venkatesh and Social Welfare Minister HC Mahadevappa, who may get Chamarajanagar district if he misses his first preference.

Both Large and Medium Industries Minister MB Patil and Textiles Minister Shivanand Patil are from Vijayapura, but Patil has higher chances of getting the charge of the district.

Likely allocation include Fisheries Minister Mankal Vaidya (Uttara Kannada), Primary and Secondary Education Minister Madhu Bangarappa (Shivamogga), Higher Education Minister Dr MC Sudhakar (Chikkaballapur), Food and Civil Supplies Minister KH Muniyappa (Kolar), Agriculture Minister N Cheluvarayaswamy (Mandya) and Mines and Geology Minister SS Mallikarjun (Davanagere).

HC asks trial court to defer proceedings against seer

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

The Karnataka High Court on Friday ordered the trial court in Chitradurga to defer proceedings against Shivamurthy Murugha Sharanaru, former pontiff of Sri Murugha Mutt of Chitradurga, for three weeks, or till July 1, whichever is earlier.

Justice M Nagaprasanna also issued notice to the state government on two separate pleas filed by the seer questioning the criminal proceedings initiated against him in a case for allegedly sexually assaulting minor girls.

After hearing arguments over the framing of charges against the accused pontiff by the trial court, the judge clarified that the hold on the trial should not be construed as a stay. The hearing was adjourned to June 21.

The accused seer had filed the petitions seeking quashing of the order for framing of charges by the trial court under POCSO Act, the Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribe (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, Religious Institution of Prevention of Misuse Act and Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act.

The seer's counsel argued that the material on record do not establish any of the offences as alleged against the petitioner. Thus, the charges framed by the trial court are liable to be set aside. "It is evident from the final report that there is no material evidence to show that the petitioner committed the offence against a member of the SC community," the counsel argued.

Hospitals overwhelmed, passengers given treatment outside; blood shortage reported

‘IT ALL HAPPENED IN THE BLINK OF AN EYE’

100 ambulances, 50 buses not enough to carry injured

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhubaneswar

EVEN a fleet of 100 ambulances and 50 buses struggled to carry injured passengers to hospitals from the accident spot at Bahanaga railway station, such was the devastation in the train accident, on Friday.

Hospitals seemed overwhelmed as passengers were given treatment outside the district headquarters hospital in Balasore. A large number of injured were also rushed to Bhadrak district.

As the news of the accident - involving three trains — Coromandel and Bengaluru-Howrah and a goods train — spread, the State government and railways authorities started rushing rescue teams to the spot to shift passengers of the derailed coaches immediately to the hospitals.

Around 600-700 personnel were moved by the government agencies and local administrations for the operation. However, ambulances required by the rescue teams to shift the injured to hospitals fell short prompting the government to send buses and other vehicles for help.

“Nearly 50 ambulances have reported but the injured appear far too many. Large number of buses being mobilised to shift injured to hospitals,” tweeted Chief Secretary Pradeep Jena at around 9.10pm, two hours after the incident.

In the hospitals, shortage of blood was felt as far too many passengers were in need of treatment.

“The accident happened in the blink of an eye. By the time I could know anything, I was under 10 to 15 passengers who had fallen on me. Some of them were groaning in pain,” said a passenger rescued from one of the derailed train.

₹10 lakh ex-gratia for kin of victims: Vaishnaw

BHUBANESWAR: UNION Minister for Railways Ashwini Vaishnaw announced ex gratia compensation to victims of the train accident at Bahanaga railway station in Balasore district. He said `10 lakh will be provided to families of victims who lost their lives in the tragic accident and `2 lakh to people who sustained grievous injuries. For those with minor injuries, a compensation of `50,000 will be provided by the ministry. Following the accident, the union minister rushed to Odisha from Goa where Prime Minister Narendra Modi is supposed to flag off the Goa-Mumbai Vande Bharat Express on Saturday morning. “Rushing to the site in Odisha. My prayers for the speedy recovery of the injured and condolences to the bereaved families,” he tweeted. Vaishnaw said along with NDRF, the Indian Air Force has also been mobilised for the rescue operations. “Rescue teams mobilised from Bhubaneswar and Kolkata. NDRF, State govt. teams and Airforce also mobilised. Will take all hands required for the rescue ops,” he wrote on Twitter.

Expressing shock over the accident involving Shalimar-Chennai Coromandel Express and Yeshwantpur-Howrah Express in Balasore district in Odisha, Tamil Nadu Chief Minister MK Stalin on Friday called up his Odisha counterpart Naveen Patnaik to know about the details of the accident. Stalin also deputed Tamil Nadu Transport Minister SS Sivasankar and three senior IAS officers to Odisha immediately to rescue the Tamils affected by this train accident.

PATNAIK REVIEWS RESCUE EFFORT, TO VISIT ACCIDENT SITE TODAY

Odisha Chief Minister Naveen Patnaik reviewed rescue operation from the control room opened at the office of the special relief commissioner and announced he will visit the mishap site on Saturday morning. Expressing grief over the incident, the chief minister said the priority is to shift the injured to hospitals and remove bodies from the site.

Locals first to respond to passengers

THIS is when the Bengaluru-Howrah Express ran right into it on the Down line. At least 12 coaches of the Coromandel Express jumped off the track in the impact. Two coaches of the other train also were derailed.

As news of the accident spread, hundreds of locals rushed to the spot to rescue the passengers. Sources said more than 300 injured passengers have so far been rescued and over 300 are still trapped.

The state government deputed DG fire services Sudhanshu Sarangi to monitor rescue operations. Four teams of the Odisha disaster rapid action force (ODRAF) and four teams of national disaster response force (NDRF) teams have been sent for rescue operations. Balasore collector Dattatraya Bhausaheb Shinde has been directed to make all necessary arrangements. The injured passengers have been admitted to Soro CHC, Gopalpur CHC and Khantapada PHC.

As many as 115 ambulances and 20 fire fighting teams from Balasore and Bhadrak districts were pressed into service. Relief trains from Kharagpur and Bhadrak rushed to the spot. West Bengal CM Mamata Banerjee also expressed shock and and announced a six-member team that will reach the spot to assist the Odisha government and railway authorities in rescue operations.

VARIOUS AGENCIES INVOLVED

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhubaneswar

A massive rescue operation was mounted by various central and state agencies near Bahanaga railway station in Balasore district after a one of the worst railway mishaps involving Coromandel Superfast Express and another train from Bengaluru.

National Disaster Response Force (NDRF), Odisha Disaster Rapid Action Force (ODRAF), Odisha Fire and Emergency Service and police launched the operation to rescue hundreds of passengers feared trapped in coaches of both the trains. DGP Sunil Kumar Bansal said Eastern Range IG Himansu Kumar Lal, Balasore SP Sagarika Nath and other senior officers are present at the spot to supervise the rescue operation.

TRAGEDY ON TRACKS: AT LEAST TWO FROM KARNATAKA DEAD, FOUR INJURED

ENS @ Bengaluru

AT LEAST two passengers travelling from Karnataka died while four sustained injuries when the 22-coach Sir M Visvesvaraya Terminal (SMVT) - Howrah Superfast Express (Train No. 12864) derailed at Balasore district in Odisha on Friday evening. Two general coaches and the brake van of the train derailed after a collision with the Shalimar-Chennai Coramandal Express (Train no. 12841). The figure for casualties and injuries is likely to go up as nearly 1,300 passengers were on board the train from Bengaluru.

According to Chief Public Relations Officer, South Western Railway, Aneesh Hegde, “A total of 994 reserved passengers boarded from SMVT at Baiyappanahalli. Close to 300 unreserved passengers too boarded the train. There were no details about the passengers. “As those affected were travelling in unreserved coaches, it will take some time to ascertain identity of passengers,” he said. A release said, “As of now, two numbers of casualties reported due to the tragic accident and 4 injured persons were hospitalised in the nearby hospital. “Passengers who suffered minor injuries were being shifted to the Balasore, Khantapara, Soro and Gopalpur Health units on priority.” SMVT-Guwahati Express (12509), which was to depart from Bengaluru on Friday night was cancelled.

Artistes perform at the famous Golconda Fort on the occasion of Telangana Formation Day in Hyderabad on Friday | VINAY MADAPU

EXPRESSING his gratitude to the people of Telangana for their unwavering support, Chief Minister K Chandrasekhar Rao on Friday promised to work tirelessly for the all-round development of the State.

Addressing the gathering during the 21-day decennial celebrations of Telangana Formation Day at the Secretariat, Rao thanked the citizens for reposing their trust in him to lead both the separate statehood movement and the reconstruction of Telangana and said: “With all your blessings, I promise that I will continue to work for the all-round development of Telangana as long as I have the strength in my body”.

During his comprehensive 48-page speech that lasted for an hour-and-a-half, the CM highlighted the major development and welfare schemes implemented over the past nine years. He emphasised how Telangana had undergone a remarkable transformation into a “naveen, navanavonmesha” “Modern State”, becoming a shining model for the rest of the country.

Rao stressed the significant progress made in various sectors, underscoring the state’s transition from its previous struggles as part of undivided Andhra Pradesh to a progressive and dynamic Telangana. He outlined the achievements in agriculture, citing the Rythu Bandhu scheme as a golden chapter in the country’s farming sector. The CM proudly stated that even the Union government had begun implementing Telangana’s successful initiative.

Meanwhile, the Union Government celebrated State Formation Day at the historic Golconda fort, while the Opposition Congress and BJP organised the festivities at their respective party offices.

At the Raj Bhavan, Governor Tamilisai Soundararajan felicitated 30 veterans who played pivotal roles in the 1969 Telangana movement.

Concluding his address with the Sanskrit lines, the Chief Minister said: “Dharmasya Vijayostu... Adharmasya Naasostu... Pranishu Sadbhavaastu .. Visvasya Kalyanamastu….” (Victory to righteousness...End of unrighteousness...May there be goodwill among all living beings...May there be prosperity for all).

Monsoon likely to hit Kerala coast tomorrow

EXPRESS NEW SERVICE
@ Thiruvananthapuram

THE southwest monsoon has advanced and is likely to reach the state around June 4 as announced by the India Meteorological Department (IMD). The monsoon has already made its way to Lakshadweep, Maldives and Sri Lanka. While the conditions remain favourable, experts are closely observing a developing cyclonic system in the sea as it could affect the onset.

The recent pick-up in rainfall has raised hopes of monsoon onset as per schedule. The IMD sounded yellow alerts for Ernakulam, Idukki, Alappuzha and Pathanamthitta on Saturday, while extending the same to Thiruvananthapuram, Kollam and Kottayam on Sunday.

The monsoon onset has been slightly delayed this year. Private weather forecaster Skymet has predicted onset on June 7 due to the presence of cyclone and lack of visible signs of monsoon conditions. IMD has vouched for the accuracy of its prediction in the past 18 years.

Despite the delay, global weather agencies predict an above-normal rainfall in Kerala. Global models have predicted the influence of El Nino in the latter half of the four-month season. The IMD, on the other hand, expects normal monsoon overall due to a positive Indian Ocean Dipole (IOD) and reduced snow cover over the northern hemisphere countering the El Nino conditions.

Damercherla in T’gana records 46.8 deg Celsius

HYDERABAD: At a time when citizens got some relief from humid weather conditions in Telangana, summer suddenly turned scorching with temperatures rising to the highest of the season. On Friday, mercury levels reached the highest in the State when Damercherla in Nalgonda recorded 46.8 degrees Celsius and Peddapalli registered 46.4 degrees Celsius. As many as 10 districts witnessed temperatures hovering above 45 degrees Celsius.

Driver opens door, 2-year-old on bike dies due to crash

HYDERABAD:In a heart-wrenching incident, sheer negligence by a car driver who carelessly opened the door of his car on a busy road in LB Nagar resulted in the death of a two-year-old girl on Friday. According to witnesses, the driver, headed towards LB Nagar, inexplicably halted his vehicle in the middle of the road without any indication and opened the door. A two-wheeler coming from behind crashed into the opened door of the car. The impact proved fatal for two-year-old Dhanalakshmi, who died on the spot. Her mother Sashirekha also suffered injuries. However, the father of the child managed to escape unharmed. The car driver has been taken into custody. ENS

‘Kantara’ row: Kerala HC stays magistrate court’s order

KOCHI: The Kerala High Court has stayed all further proceedings based on the Kozhikode Chief Judicial Magistrate Court's order to the police to seize the agreements/contracts relating to the composition of the song ‘Varaharoopam...’ used in ‘Kantara’. The court issued the interim order on a petition filed by Vijay Kirgandur, and B L Ajaneesh, producer and music director, respectively of the film. The magistrate court’s order came on a complaint seeking an investigation and seizure of materials related to the song. According to the complaint, the song ‘Varaharoopam...’ is an unauthorised copy of the song ‘Navarasam’ composed by the band Thaikkudam Bridge. ENS

Kolkata man arrested for setting coach on fire

KANNUR: Railway Police have arrested Prasonjith Sikdar, 40, of Kolkata, West Bengal, for setting afire the empty bogey of Alappuzha-Kannur Express, which had stabled in the 8th yard of the third platform at Kannur railway station at 1.30 am on Thursday. North Zone IG Neeraj Kumar Gupta said that, as of now, there is only one accused in the case. “We have not got any evidence leading to the involvement of any other persons apart from Prasonjith. The investigation is on and we will surely check the possibilities of involvement of more persons in the incident,” he said. During interrogation, Prasonjith Sikdar said that, he is from South 24 Parganas, Kolkata. ENS

INDIA, NEPAL DISPLAY RESOLVE TO USHER IN NEW ERA OF RELATIONS

THE relations between India and Nepal have taken a positive turn. Prime Minister of Nepal Pushpa Kamal Dahal, popularly known as Prachanda, who had started his earlier tenure with a visit to China, decided to make India the first port of call in his second inning. To emphasise his increasing neutrality vis-à-vis his country's relations with China and India, days before embarking on the India trip, he pushed through the controversial amendment that gave Nepali citizenship and accompanying political rights to foreign women marrying Nepali nationals. The issue had been hanging fire for a long time due to stiff opposition from China, which felt that the law would help Tibetan refugees acquire property and businesses in Nepal and use the resources generated to mount a campaign for Tibet's independence. Prachanda has sent a strong signal to India by brushing aside China's opposition. Nepal and India have centuries-old socio-cultural ties. Girls from Uttar Pradesh, Uttarakhand, Bihar and West Bengal often marry in Nepal. The amendment in the citizenship law will bring them significant relief. Relations between India and Nepal had nosedived during Prime Minister Narendra Modi's first term when India decided to block the movement of goods to Nepal. The two countries have, however, decided to put the past behind them and work towards a shared geo-political goal of maintaining peace in the region through cooperation. The Indian Prime Minister had earlier called for a HIT (Highways, I-ways and Transways) formula to shape bilateral relations. After meeting Prachanda on this trip, Modi said he wanted to take the relationship from HIT to Super-HIT. He said the relations between India and Nepal would scale Himalayan heights. There is a perceptible thaw in the relationship. The two leaders looked at ease with each other. This new resolve to work together is resulting in the resolution of vexed issues and the signing of new agreements. Prachanda made light of Nepal's earlier hard stand on border issues with India. He said the dispute over Lipulekh, Kalapani, and Limpiyadhura, which were shown as part of its territory in Nepal's new map, will be resolved through discussions. Indian companies have shown interest in tapping Nepal's vast hydropower potential. Nepal has opened its doors to them. Besides, tourism is a big draw, with Nepal agreeing to India's request to develop a Ramayana circuit around Janakpur, the birthplace of Sita. Nepal depends on India for the movement of its goods and access to seaports. India might accept this long-pending demand in view of improved ties.

KERALA BORROWINGS CAP: TIGHTEN FISCAL BELT

KERALA'S financial troubles have just got worse. The Union government recently fixed the state's ceiling for open market borrowings at Rs 15,390 crore for the first nine months of this fiscal year, about Rs 7,000 crore less than what the state expected. This is a body blow for a government that depends on borrowings to manage even routine expenses. Kerala wrote to the Centre seeking details of the calculation that led to the slashing of the net borrowing limit. While there's no doubt that the Centre ought to explain the reasons for the sake of transparency and clarity, the fact remains that the state government has itself to blame for the situation.

It is paying the price for past financial misadventures. The Finance Commission sets the limit for open market borrowings by the states. For the current fiscal, it has been fixed at 3% of GSDP, which applies to all. What that means is that Kerala can be allowed to borrow up to Rs 32,442 crore. It won't be able to because of its past off-budget borrowings (OBB). The Centre had decided to adjust OBBs by states against their net borrowing ceiling to ensure fiscal prudence and discipline. Kerala has huge accumulated OBBs because of borrowings by the Kerala Infrastructure Investment Fund Board and Kerala Social Security Pension Limited. So, the amount it can borrow during the year could come down by nearly half of what it is entitled to.

The enormity of Kerala's debt burden can be gauged from its outstanding liability, having grown from Rs 2,67,585 crore in 2019-20 to Rs 3,90,859 crore in 2020-23. As a percentage of GSDP, it has increased from 32.5% to 36.38% during the period. It's high time the Kerala government played by the rules and put its finances back on track. It needs to look beyond borrowings to stay in business. There's thinking within the ruling Left that instead of blaming the Centre, the government should ensure effective tax collection to stabilise the economy. Numbers show that taxes to the tune of Rs 20,000 crore were raised but not realised (at the end of 2021-22), and Rs 12,724 crore of which was not under any dispute. While borrowings may be necessary to manage expenses, the government must look at reducing liabilities in the interest of Kerala's financial health. Tightening tax collection and mobilising additional revenue resources are the way to do it.

QUICK TAKE

CURB CLASS 10 DROPOUT RATE

A government report reveals that India's Class 10 dropout rates are a worry. It assumes that most of 27.5 lakh failed students and 7.5 lakh who did not take the exam may not pursue further studies. If true, it is a setback to the government's vocational training programmes that lead to assured employment. The government must contain the dropout levels. Often, a low teacher-to-student ratio and focus on clever students leads to neglect of slow learners. Fear of maths and sciences dissuades weak students from taking the exams. Low pass marks demotivate students, and their lot worsens for want of counselling.

Rising employment in agriculture, which is a labour surplus sector, only tends to lower productivity and real incomes of those who are dependent on it

THE JOBS AND LABOUR DEBATE UNDER SCRUTINY

PROF SANTOSH MEHROTRA

Editor of Reviving Jobs: An Agenda for Growth (Penguin, 2020)

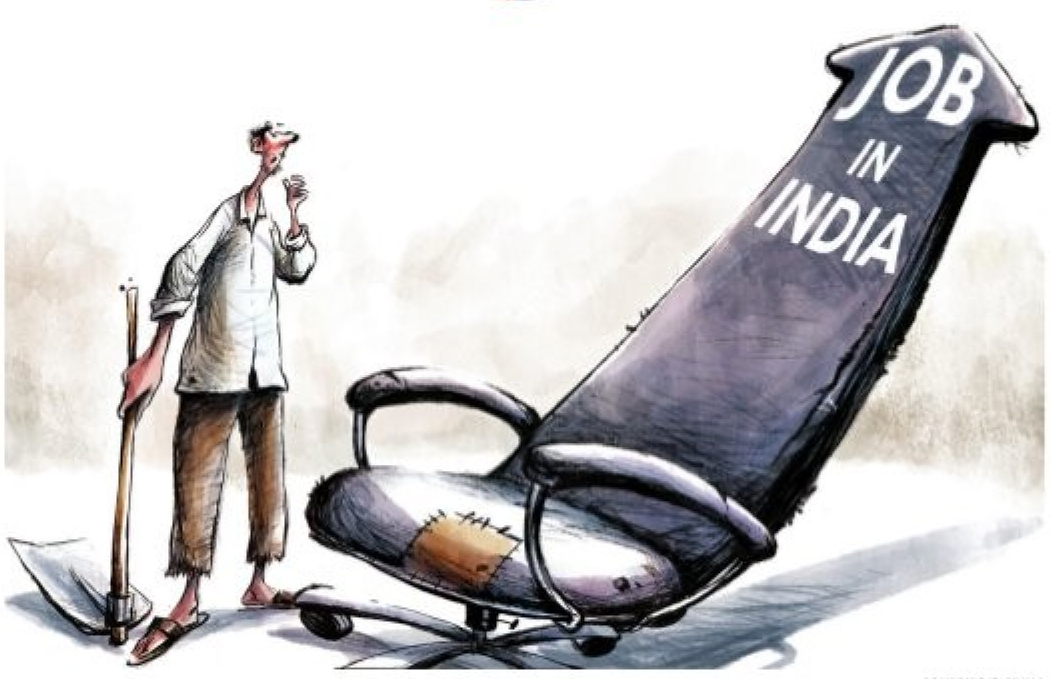
STRANGE claims have been made regarding employment in the last couple of months by members of, and advocates for, the government. The first claim was that India is experiencing a 'jobful' economy; another that wages have been rising; and yet another that India does not need to create many jobs as there is a mis-measurement of the numbers joining the labour force as population growth rate has fallen. I will discuss each in turn based on the analysis of the government's own National Survey Organisation's (NSO) data.

It was claimed that there had been a 58 million increase in jobs between 2019 and 2022 and that this job creation is the highest in Indian history over a minimum of three years. The same authors also claim, bizarrely, that employment growth from 2004-5 to 2011-12 (India's highest-ever GDP growth period) during the UPA years was weak – a total increase of just 13.3 million.

Such claims ignore that much of the claim of 58 million 'jobs' rests upon the increase in 'employment' in agriculture during Covid. In 2019, the number of workers in agriculture was 188 million; in the middle of 2020, that number had risen due to reverse migration by 45 million. For anyone believing that in 2021 the migration had reversed back to the cities, away from agriculture, the NSO data throws up a surprise: in 2021, 7 million additional people were working in agriculture compared to 2020. Between 2004-5 and 2011-12, 37 million workers exited agriculture, a good development, as non-farm job growth rose sharply to 7.5 million per annum.

However, as non-farm job growth had fallen post-2013 (to only 2.9 million per annum till 2019), the rate of exit from agriculture also fell. GDP growth fell sharply from 2016 for each quarter until Covid surfaced. India's open unemployment rate in 2017-18 had risen to a 45-year high. To make matters worse, the ill-planned and sudden national lockdown following Covid caused massive reverse migration on a historic scale.

Rising employment in agriculture, which is a labour surplus sector, only tends to lower the productivity and real incomes of those who are dependent on it. Worse, it is the opposite of the structural change considered as productive growth of employment with a fall in the share of agriculture in GDP and a rise in non-farm employment. Most development economists would regard only a rise in employment in non-farm sectors (manufacturing, construction/mining/utilities, services), where productivity is much higher than in agriculture, as true employment increases.



SOUMYADIP SINHA

Worse still, most of this so-called increase in 'jobs' in agriculture since 2019 is in 'unpaid family labour', a form of self-employment where women, youth and children are joining other family members to appear 'employed'. The ILO's definition---followed by 92 other countries, but not India--says that unpaid family labour engaged in work cannot be regarded as employment (as it is not remunerated). The Centre for Monitoring the Indian Economy, generating monthly data on employment since 2016, follows the ILO definition, and has shown consistent rises in unemployment and falls in labour force and workforce participation rates in India since 2016, when NSO was showing the opposite despite falling growth.

It seems that NDA governments specialise in calling an increase in employment in agriculture as 'jobs': there was a similarly sharp increase in jobs in agriculture between 1999-2000 and 2004-5, by 24 million.

Government economists have also claimed in recent months that real wages since 2017 have risen using the Ministry of Labour's Labour Bureau data of certain sectors (which too have been rightly disputed by independent economists). The quality of Labour Bureau data on wages has always been suspect, apart from not being comprehensive. We estimated real wages between 2017 and 2022 from NSO's Periodic Labour Force Survey (like the jobs analysis above) for agriculture, manufacturing, construction, and services. For each category – casual or regular wage/salaried, and self-employed – real wages have remained flat or fallen for the entire period, essentially settling the debate.

Finally, a senior-most government economic adviser has claimed that India's population growth rate has fallen to 0.8% pa, and the total fertility rate fell to 2 (or below the replacement rate of 2.1) in 2021, so India does not need to create 10 million jobs a year. This claim assumes that those born today are starting to work very shortly, which is obviously wrong. It takes them 15 years from birth to even complete eight years of education and legally enter the labour market.

The claim also ignores three facts of critical significance to answer the question: how many jobs need to be created each year? The first is that India needed to pull millions out of agriculture even before the catastrophic reverse migrations of 2020 and 2021; they were underemployed (>42% of the workforce generating 15% of GDP). Because non-farm jobs were not growing fast enough to absorb the numbers looking for work, the number of workers in agriculture rose even in 2022 (Periodic Labour Force Survey data) – which is what a government economist calls 'jobful' growth. India had seen the share of workers in agriculture fall from 60% in 2000 to 42% in 2019, which shot up to 45.6% in 2022.

The second group that needs non-farm jobs are youth, all getting better educated since the beginning of this century. They don't want to work in agriculture, given continuing rural distress. A large subgroup of the youth is girls, who had achieved an 80% gross enrolment rate by 2015 in secondary education and who have aspirations to marry later than age 18, as a Nandi Foundation survey of teenagers had found (75% want to marry between 18-25 years). Yet, India has the world's lowest female labour force participation, similar to Saudi Arabia.

The third group needing non-farm jobs is the openly unemployed. The current government inherited about 10 million unemployed; that number rose to 30 million, we estimate, by 2019. Thanks to poor economic management during Covid and a K-shaped recovery, open unemployment increased to 38 million by 2022 (PLFS data).

In sum, India needs at least 10-12 million new jobs for these groups each year.

CLIMATE CHANGE AND THE ANTHROPOCENE EXTINCTION

PRATIK KANJILAL

Editor of The India Cable

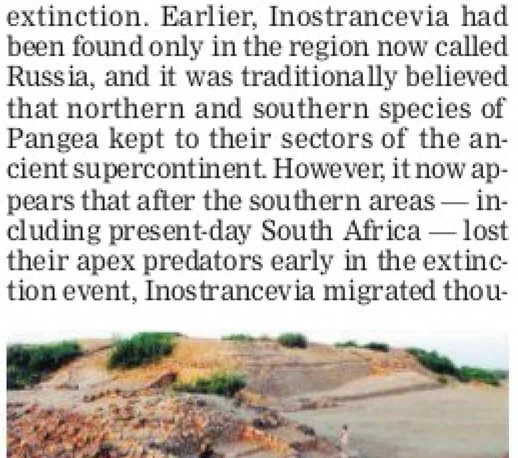
SPEAKEASY

EXTREME weather has become a global feature, like the floods in California last winter and the punishing summer now visiting South Asian and some Chinese cities. Climate change and its follow-on effects have often been precursors to the extinction of species and human habitats, especially cities (Mohenjo-Daro, for instance). There were five great extinctions before humans evolved. Of them, the Permian-Triassic extinction of about 250 million years ago, which marked the boundary between the Paleozoic and Mesozoic eras, was the most catastrophic event in the history of life, wiping out nine out of 10 species and clearing the board for the age of the dinosaurs. More knowledge about its development may help us survive the sixth wave, the Holocene or Anthropocene extinction, which we are living through.

Of course, the current wave of extinctions has a novel feature: humans have accelerated it. Megafauna extinctions — even recent events like the dwindling of the North American bison — are associated with the spread of humans, who have hunted recklessly. Species which had developed in isolation, like the dodo and the moa, began to disappear during the age of exploration, when development chipped away at habitats, and new diseases, vectors, invasive species and crop plants travelled from continent to continent on board trading ships, changing economies and cultures. But now, the climate crisis is more urgently visible than extinctions, especially in big cities, where modern design and construction materials have turned into heat traps. Their ambient temperatures are rising much faster than the rates negotiated at climate talks. Cities are the most visible works of human civilisation — the very word is related to civitas, Latin for 'city' — and the establishment of early urban centres in a belt across the Old World, from Egypt and Turkey to the Indian subcontinent, marked the beginning of modern culture. Ironically, the city is now signalling the ecological crisis that urbanised civilisation created. And a sharper irony could lie in the Holocene extinction.

Large apex predators are canaries in the coal mine for mass extinction events triggered by ecosystem destabilisation, suggests a recent paper in Current Biology by Christian F Kammerer, Pia A Viglietti, Elize Butler and Jennifer Botha. They base their finding on the discovery of the sabre-toothed mammal-like predator Inostrancevia in South Africa just before the devastating Permian-Triassic extinction. Earlier, Inostrancevia had been found only in the region now called Russia, and it was traditionally believed that northern and southern species of Pangea kept to their sectors of the ancient supercontinent. However, it now appears that after the southern areas — including present-day South Africa — lost their apex predators early in the extinction event, Inostrancevia migrated thousands of kilometres south to fill the ecological niche. But despite lack of competition for its ecological niche, the new apex predator died soon after that.



We are the first species to farm other species to eat them at a larger scale than would be possible in the wild

The Permian-Triassic extinction, which made Inostrancevia adventurous and then put away in the fossil record after a brief success, is a useful point of comparison for the extinction event now in progress. But the irony is that while Inostrancevia could be used as a barometer because it was the apex predator of the time, Homo sapiens could have taken its role, though it is only the top hunter. The apex predator is the species which can prey on others, but no other species can prey on it. That roughly describes humanity, but it's in a league of its own. We are the first species to farm other species to eat them at a larger scale than would be possible in the wild.

The Anthropocene extinction rate has swept far above the natural momentum of evolution. It is 100-1,000 times the background extinction rate (from before human activity pressed the accelerator) and proceeds about 100 times faster than the 'Great Dying' of the Permian-Triassic. Life scientists acknowledged a crisis in the 1990s, and it is accepted that half of the higher life forms could be rendered extinct by human intervention by the end of this century. That is not too far away: many people born this year will see the day, assuming that sapiens can escape the fate of apex predators — which it is, in terms of scale. Archaeologists gloomily joke that our civilisation will be identified by their future peers by a thick stratum of chicken bones where towns and cities used to stand. We eat enough chicken to create a defining urban horizon of their mortal remains like a meteorite strike leaves a layer of ash with concentrations of minerals across the globe.

Extinction events doom apex predators because it's lonely at the top — they depend on access to specific species of large herbivores for survival. This has been a feature of their lives from the Permian-Triassic to the present. Their prey is, in turn, dependent on specific kinds of vegetation, which are quickly affected by climate change. Since every link in the food chain is vulnerable to change, the carnivore at the top suffers a multiplier effect and is especially vulnerable. The fate of Inostrancevia could have been the product of inflexibility.

Omnivorous, humanity has the elbow room that true apex predators don't. Our chances of surviving the developing climate crisis are probably higher than we anticipate because we are flexible in terms of both food and habitat. By developing an industrial civilisation, we have painted ourselves into an inhospitable corner, but we can also step away from it. But whether we have the sense to do so is another matter.

Bishop resignation

Bishop Franco Mulakkal, an accused charged with allegedly raping a nun in June 2018, has stepped down as head of Jalandhar Diocese (NIE June 2). Pope Francis has accepted his resignation. While one wonders at the baffling delayed dispensation of justice, in such cases, 'justice delayed is justice too', considering the serious charges leveled against the bishop.

GDP growth

The report that India's GDP grew at 6.1 per cent during the January-March quarter of the financial time 2022-23 is yet another indicator that the country is healthy and headed in the right direction. This will push the overall growth rate to 7.2 per cent for the full year.

Harmful freebies

Referring to your editorial 'Freebie race can only lead to debt trap' (Jun 2), you have rightly opined that competitive offering of freebies by politicians will leave successive governments in a debt trap. Moreover, the relative opportunity cost will hinder real core economic development at cost of taxpayers' money, consequent higher fiscal deficit might land the governments in economic distress, and low-quality freebies might endanger the lives of the hapless voters receiving the freebies.

Unity needed

When all democratic norms are thrown to the winds and even ordinances are promulgated to defy the verdicts of the Supreme Court by the BJP government at the Centre, the opposition parties must come together to find ways and means to thwart the undemocratic moves of the ruling dispensation and ultimately defeat them in the 2024 General Elections.

Defence spending

What we could learn from the article inked by MP Manish Tewari on the edit page is our spending on military is inadequate. It must be enhanced as national security requires a balanced approach in war and peace.

Farmers, khaps set June 9 deadline to arrest WFI chief, Centre on backfoot amid growing support for grapplers

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai/Chandigarh

Bajrang Punia, Sakshi Malik and Vinesh Phogat — all of whom have been demanding Singh's arrest for a couple of months — were shoved and dragged during a protest

THE pressure is mounting on the Centre to take action against the sidelined Wrestling Federation of India (WFI) Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh. After portions of the FIR against Singh went public, members of India's iconic World Cup-winning team of 1983 came out with a statement against the manhandling of the wrestlers and hoped their grievances would be heard. Later on Friday evening, 'khap mahapanshayat' set a June 9 deadline to arrest Singh.

The Class of 1983 issued a statement saying: "We are distressed and disturbed at the unseemly visuals of our champion wrestlers being manhandled. We are also most concerned that they are thinking of dumping their hard earned medals into river Ganga."

Bajrang Punia, Sakshi Malik and Vinesh Phogat — all of whom have been demanding Singh's arrest for a couple of months — were shoved and dragged during a protest march in New Delhi on Sunday. Their tents and belongings were forcibly removed from Jantar Mantar, their protest site since April 23. Left with no option, the wrestlers then went to Haridwar to immerse their medals in.

"Those medals have involved years of effort, sacrifice, determination, and grit and are not only their own but the nation's pride and joy," the Class of 1983 continued in their statement. "We urge them not to take any hasty decision in this matter and also fervently hope that their grievances are heard and resolved quickly. Let the law of the land prevail."

In Kurukshetra a bigger concern is brewing for the Centre.

'Distressed, disturbed'

The Class of 1983 issued a statement saying: "We are distressed and disturbed at the unseemly visuals of our champion wrestlers being manhandled. We are also most concerned that they are thinking of dumping their hard earned medals into river Ganga." The statement further said, "Those medals have involved years of effort, sacrifice, determination, and grit and are not only their own but the nation's pride and joy," the Class of 1983 continued in their statement. "We urge them not to take any hasty decision in this matter and also fervently hope that their grievances are heard and resolved quickly. Let the law of the land prevail."

A 'mahapanchayat' was held to decide the future course of action. The farmer leaders had persuaded the wrestlers to abandon their plans to dump their medals. After the 'mahapanchayat', Bharatiya Kisan Union (BKU) leader Rakesh Tikait said Singh should be arrested. "We are giving the government time till June 9 to act on the demand, else the agitation will be intensified by holding panchayats across the country and the wrestlers will return to Jantar Mantar to protest."

The representatives of various khaps and farmers' outfits reached the Jat Dharamshala from different places, including Haryana, Punjab, Rajasthan and Uttar Pradesh.

Tikait said the wrestlers are the country's pride and all they are demanding is justice. He said the government should accede to the genuine demands of the wrestlers. Tikait said specific charges had been levelled against Singh and police must take immediate action.

Tikait also pointed out that even the International Olympic Committee (IOC) had condemned the manner in which the wrestlers were treated by the Delhi police on Sunday. Tikait said even though Singh is making statements, there is nothing from the government's side as yet. There was a scuffle after the meeting as well. The Khap leaders claimed that the government had sent its people to disturb the meeting, said sources.

Panel proposal makes sedition law far more draconian, says Cong

PREETHA NAIR @New Delhi

TERMING the Law Commission recommendations on sedition law as 'terrible and treacherous', Congress on Friday attacked the BJP-led government that it is using sedition laws as a tool for silencing political dissent.

Addressing mediapersons in the capital, Congress national spokesperson and Supreme Court lawyer Abhishek Singhvi said the Law Commission proposal makes the existing sedition law far more draconian, invasive and prejudicial by enhancing the lower end of the punishment from three to seven years. "It ignores the spirit of the Supreme Court proceedings in May and October last year which has rendered the entire offense of sedition in the country inoperative and clearly intended it to be repealed/ rendered deal later," he said.

The Congress spokesperson pointed out that on May 11, 2022, a three-judge bench of the SC headed by the then Chief Justice of India N V Ramana had put the provision in abeyance instead of deciding on its validity. "This was after the Central government told the court that it will re-examine and reconsider whether Section 124A needs to be retained," he said. "On October 31, 2022, an interim order was passed by the SC putting on hold the contentious sedition law and said that the consequential registration of FIRs will continue as the SC granted additional time to the Centre to take 'appropriate steps' with regard to the reviewing of the colonial-era provision," Singhvi said.

The Congress leader also stressed that there has been a massive rise in sedition cases since 2014. "There has been an annual rise of 28 per cent in sedition cases between 2014 and 2020, compared to the yearly average between 2010 and 2014. 12 sedition cases were filed during the pandemic against those who raised concerns over the issue of migrant labourers," Singhvi said.

War of words erupts over Rahul's remark in US on Muslim League

PREETHA NAIR @New Delhi

A political slugfest erupted on Friday over senior Congress leader Rahul Gandhi's remarks during his US trip that party's Kerala ally Indian Union Muslim League (IUML) is a secular party. Gandhi, who is on six-day visit to the US, made the comment during an hour long interaction with the media at the National Press Club in Washington D C. Rahul spoke on a range of issues— Opposition unity, declining press freedom in India, his disqualification from Parliament, attack on minorities and Indo- US relationship, among others.

While replying to a question on Congress's alliance with the IUML in Kerala, the former Congress President said that there's nothing non-secular about IUML. "I think the person who asked the question, hasn't studied the Muslim League," he said.

Gandhi's comments invited strong criticism from BJP which accused Congress of praising Jinnah's Muslim League a 'secular party. While Union Ministers Kiran Rijiju and Anurag Thakur linked IUML with "Jinnah's Muslim League, Congress hit back at the party saying that Hindu Mahasabha president Shyama Prasad Mookerjee aligned with Jinnah to form the government in Bengal during British rule.

Speaking about Opposition Unity, the Gandhi scion said that though the opposition is united, more give and take is required. "I think it's getting more and more united. We're having conversations with all the Opposition parties."

Referring to the internal contradictions, he said, "It's a complicated discussion, because there are spaces where we are competing also with Opposition. So, a little bit of give and take is required. But I'm confident that that will happen,"

59 MPs ask German envoy to repatriate baby Ariha to India

YESHI SELI @New Delhi

FIFTY-NINE Members of Parliament, from 19 political parties, have written to the German Ambassador asking for the early repatriation of baby Ariha Shah who has been under forced German foster care for over 20 months now.

The signatories include MPs Jaya Bachchan, Hema Malini, Shashi Tharoor, Mahua Moitra, Dr Farooq Abdullah, Priyanka Chaturvedi and others.

The letter addressed to German Ambassador, Dr Phillip Ackerman, reads that though they respect German laws since there are no criminal cases against the parents, the child should be repatriated to India.

The German authorities had taken custody of Ariha Shah in September, 2021, when she was seven months old, alleging that the parents harassed her.

"Baby Ariha was taken away from her parents in September 2021 when she was seven months old by the German Child Services. This was after the child had suffered an accident and was hospitalised. An initial probe had begun on allegations of child sexual abuse but this was found baseless and the case was closed without any charges being levelled against the parents. Following this, the child was shifted to a special child care and then moved to foster care. As Members of Parliament we have special responsibility for the welfare of our citizens. We request you to do whatever necessary to send the child back to India," said the letter signed by Rajya Sabha MP Dr John Brittas on behalf of the other 58 MPs.

The German Ambassador refrained from making any comments on the letter. The parents, are practising Jains, and have raised objections on what the child has been fed in foster care – which is contrary to their culture and beliefs.

The Ministry of External Affairs said they have been persistently advocating for Ariha return. "Our efforts have been guided by the best interests of the child, which we believe can be fully realised only when she is in her home country."

Fresh UGC norms help deemed varsities focus on quality, says Pradhan

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

UNION Minister of Education Dharmendra Pradhan on Friday released the UGC (Institutions Deemed to be Universities) Regulations, 2023, stating that they will facilitate the creation of many more quality-focused deemed-to-be universities in an objective and transparent manner.

Pradhan said that these new simplified regulations will encourage universities to focus on quality and excellence, strengthen the research ecosystem and have a long-term impact in transforming our higher education landscape.

The UGC Act 1956 empowers the central government to confer the status of Institutions Deemed to be Universities on institutions other than universities. These regulations govern the process of declaration, establishment of off-campus centers, eligibility criteria, and governance for deemed universities.

The eligibility criteria to apply for deemed to be university status is National Assessment and Accreditation Council 'A' grade or National Board of Accreditation (NBA) for two thirds of eligible programmes for three consecutive cycles. The other criteria are that these institutions are in the top 50 of any specific category of National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF) for the last three years continuously. Also, they could be in the top 100 of overall NIRF ranking for the last three years continuously.

A cluster of institutions managed by more than one sponsoring body can also apply for the status. At present there are over 1,000 deemed to be Universities in the country. They can also start their off-shore campus approved by the government.

In a first, Navy imparts onboard training to Saudi Arabian cadets

Navy chief Admiral R Hari Kumar interacted with cadets of the King Fahd Naval Academy in Saudi Arabia | TWITTER

REFLECTING a milestone in bolstering the ties between India and Saudi Arabia, the officer cadets of the Royal Saudi Naval Force (RSNF) are being imparted training by the Indian Navy on ships. "55 cadets of the Royal Saudi Naval Force (RSNF), along with five directing staff are attached with the first training squadron ships, INS Tir and INS Sujata, as part of afloat-training with the Indian Navy's Southern Naval Command," the Indian Navy said on Friday.

Indian Navy chief Admiral R Hari Kumar interacted with the cadets of King Fahd Naval Academy undergoing sea-training at Southern Naval Command, Kochi. The chief o naval staff (CNS) was apprised of the ongoing harbour and afloat-training activities, including familiarisation sea sorties. Welcoming the RSNF delegation in India, the CNS said: "The maiden training of Saudi cadets by the Indian Navy as testimony to the growing friendship between Saudi Arabia and India as also the two Navies."

He also acknowledged the assistance received from the Government of Saudi Arabia during the recent evacuation of Indian nationals from Sudan.

Emphasising the close relations and cooperation between the two navies, Admiral Hari Kumar said the joint exercise, staff talks and training exchanges have progressed well over the years and signify the strong bond between the two Navies. The training is being held in phases. As part of the training curriculum, simulator training was undertaken for the cadets prior to embarking for the sea training phase.

The cadets have completed 10 days at sea onboard the Indian naval ships. "During the sea sorties, they were exposed to rigorous training on practical aspects of navigation and seamanship with emphasis on navigation in pilotage waters, anchoring, coastal navigation and replenishment at sea, sea boats, firefighting and emergency drills," said the Navy.

Two-day harbour training on sail-training ship INS Sudarshini is also planned to familiarise them with the rigours of life onboard a sail ship.

"The relationship between India and Saudi Arabia has grown owing to common interests in economic prosperity, eliminating the scourge of terrorism and mitigating the effects of climate change. Defence diplomacy forms one of the major tenets of the overall relationship," said the Indian Navy.

INDO-NEPAL TIES

A JOURNEY THAT ENCOMPASSES 75 YEARS FROM NEHRU TO MODI

Nepal's Prime Minister Pushpa Kamal Dahal 'Prachanda' recent visit to India, markes a milestone in this sepcial relations. The Ministry of External Affairs emphasized the importance of this visit, referring to Prachanda as a "Special Friend." The bond between the two nations is defined by their longstanding open borders and profound people-to-people connections.

HISTORICAL TIES

Nepal shares an 1,850km border with five Indian states (Sikkim, West Bengal, Bihar, Uttar Pradesh, and Uttarakhand) to the south and China's Tibet autonomous region to the north. The foundation of the special relationship between India and Nepal is in the 1950 India-Nepal Treaty of Peace and Friendship. Additionally, both nations are members of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (SAARC).

TREATY OF PEACE AND FRIENDSHIP

The 1950 treaty ensured equal facilities and opportunities for Nepalese citizens in India. Approximately 8 million Nepalese reside and work in India, benefiting from this treaty. India has been a consistent supporter of Nepal, addressing connectivity and development issues. Efforts have been made to upgrade Nepal's roads, establish cross-border rail links, and create integrated check posts. India has allocated of `1,200 crore to Nepal as assistance during 2019-20.

DEFENCE TIES

While China has pursued Nepal as part of its realpolitik strategy, India has played a prominent role in supporting the modernisation of the Nepal Army. The historical connection between the Gorkhas and the Indian Army, dating back to 1815, has strengthened defence ties. India provides training opportunities for Nepalese personnel, and reciprocal honors are bestowed upon the Chiefs of Army Staff of both nations.

IRRITANTS

Despite these positive aspects, there have been certain challenges in the relationship, such as perceived Indian interference, growing nationalism, exploitation of anti-India sentiment, and Nepal's deepening ties with China. Ongoing border disputes further strain the relationship.

THE OUTCOME OF PRACHANDA'S VISIT

India agreed to import 10,000 megawatts of power from Nepal over the next decade. Both sides signed seven agreements covering trade, energy, and more, including the establishment of an integrated check post at Rupaidiha in India and Nepalgunj in Nepal to streamline border crossings. A cargo train connecting Bathnaha in Bihar to the customs yard in Nepal was inaugurated, strengthening bilateral trade. Also agreements were reached on hydroelectric power projects, petroleum infrastructure development, railway connectivity, cross-border payment systems, and trade and investment, aimed at expanding overall bilateral ties.

THE WAY FORWARD

Nepal seeks to resolve border issues, maintain its geopolitical identity, and discourage interference in its internal politics. India, on the other hand, is concerned about China's increasing proximity to Nepal and the potential long-term strategic implications it poses.This includes Nepals participation in Belt and Road Initiative.

Mann shielding min accused of sexual misconduct: Cong

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

Leader of Opposition and senior Congress leader Partap Singh Bajwa wrote to Punjab Governor Banwarilal Purohit on Friday, urging him to forward the matter pertaining to minister Lal Chand Kataruchak, who is facing charges of "sexual misconduct", to the chief justice of the high court to treat it as a suo-motu writ petition.

This comes a day after the governor said that Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann should act against Food and Civil Supplies minister Lal Chand Kataruchak in this regard.

Bajwa said that the report of the forensic probe that was asked for by the Punjab governor stated that the video of sexual misconduct was not morphed. "As anticipated, the AAP government is trying to pressurize the victim to withdraw the video statement and complaint to the National Commission for Scheduled Castes. False cases are being registered against those who have been coming in support of the victim. The AAP government is leaving no stone unturned to harass the victim and his family,'' claimed Bajwa. He said that there was no point in forming a Special Investigating Team (SIT) in the matter when the forensic probe of the video had already been performed and the victim had openly blamed the cabinet minister.

The sole motive behind the proposal to form an SIT was to put the issue on the back burner, he added. "The AAP government in Punjab has apparently crossed all limits of brazenness to protect Kataruchak. What example is CM Mann trying to set by shielding a minister who has indulged in such a nasty crime,'' Bajwa said.

He approached victim by sending FB request

AAP is facing flak over the issue with the opposition parties demanding action against Kataruchak. After taking cognisance of the victim's complaint, the NCSC issued the notice to the Punjab government last month and asked the chief secretary and the DGP to investigate the matter and submit an action-taken report. The minister had allegedly approached the victim "by sending him a friend request on Facebook in 2013-14 and when he accepted it, Kataruchak allegedly started making advances", the NCSC had said.

Hectic parleys for Oppn unity meet

Grand alliance leaders discuss plans for the gathering to be held in Patna on June 12

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

LEADERS of Grand Alliance met on Friday to chalk out plans for the scheduled meeting of Opposition parties on June 12 at Gyan Bhawan in the state captial. Many topics such as the theme of the meeting came up for discussion in the meeting which was attended by state RJD president Jagdanand Singh and state JD (U) president Umesh Kushwaha, among others.

Senior JD (U) minister Sajany Jha said that it would be a historic meeting. Bihar is fortunate enough to host so many prominent leaders, he added. "We have to make the country BJP-free and we will succeed fully in our endeavour," he added.

The meeting of the opposition leaders in Patna may prove a turning point in forging a greater Opposition unity against BJP in the 2024 Lok Sabha election.

Bihar Chief Minister JD (U) leader Nitish Kumar has taken lead to forge a broader Opposition unity.

After Congress registered an emphatic victory in Karnataka, the Opposition camp is buoyant and a hope has been created that BJP can be defeated by challenging it on basic issues. It is expected that leaders of at least 15 Opposition parties will attend the Patna meeting.

Parties which have given their consent to join the meeting are Congress, AAP, TMC, NCP, Shiv Sena (UBT), JMM, Samajwadi Party, INLD, RLD, AIDUF, CPI, CPI (M) and CPI (ML).

NCP chief Sharad Pawar, Shiv Sena (UBT) chief and former Maharashtra chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray, West Bengal chief minister Mamta Banerjee, Jharkhand CM Hemant Soren and several others are expected to participate in the June 12 meeting.

However, suspense continues over Congress leader Rahul Gandhi attending opposition meeting . Congress leader Jairam Ramesh said that Congress would participate in the meeting but it was uncertain that who would attend it.

A final decision on it will be taken after Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge and other senior party leaders take a final call on it.

It only raises doubt whether Rahul Gandhi will attend the meeting as his absence will only leave many questions unanswered. Rahul is at present touring the US.

Bengal Congress cautions Kharge against TMC ties

PRANAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

WEST Bengal Congress leaders on Friday met Mallikarjun Kharge and made it clear that they are against any alliance with the ruling TMC in the state. The development comes days before the scheduled to meet of Opposition parties in Patna where TMC supremo and West Bengal CM Mamata Banerjee and Congress leaders will be present to draw a roadmap to fight the BJP in the 2024 Lok Sabha election.

Citing the recent defection of lone Congress MLA Bayron Biswas to the TMC, Congress leaders from the state accused the Bengal's ruling party of poaching MLAs from Opposition camp.

Kharge, reportedly, assured the Congress leaders from Bengal that no decision about alliance with the Congress in Bengal politics would be taken without consulting the party's Bengal chapter. Biswas was the Congress's candidate in Sagardighi Assembly by-election, supported by the Left Front. After the victory, both the Left Front and Congress announced that they would fight against the TMC and the BJP in the state by forming an alliance. "But Biswas's defection was a blow to our effort," admitted a Left Front leader.

Mines & geology dept to have own security force

To curb illegal mining activities in Bihar, the state Mines and Geology department is all set to have its own dedicated 'Armed Mining Police Force', an official said. Two dedicated battalions will be created on the lines of the Bihar Industrial Security Force for 'Armed Mining Police', the official said. As per the final plan/proposal the 'Mining Police' will comprise 1,278 armed personnel. "It has also been decided to create permanent outposts of mining police in Bhojpur and Bhagalpur districts where illegal sand mining activities are frequently reported. Arms training will be imparted at the Bihar Police training centres," he said.

G20 delegates likely to visit Bihar Museum

Patna is all set to host a two-day meeting of the G20 this month, and delegates are expected to visit the modern Bihar Museum in the state capital a day before the inaugural event, a top official said. About 150 delegates will take part in the G20 meeting of the Labour Engagement Group on June 22-23, he said. The delegates will arrive on June 21, officials said. "On June 22, the inaugural meeting will take place at Samrat Ashok Convention Centre near Gandhi Maidan. On the same day, the delegates will be treated to a gala dinner and cultural programmes at Bapu Sabhagar located on the same premises as the Centre," said the top official.

Tejashwi leaves event organisers embarassed

Deputy CM Tejashwi Yadav is known for his reluctance to share dias with firebrand Congress leader Kanhaiya Kumar. However, a organisers of the event realised it too late. Though Kanhaiya reached the programme, Tejashwi distanced himself from it. Organisers were virtually clueless about the reason behind Tejashwi not attending the function as they kept inquiring from RJD leaders when Lalu Prasad's younger son and deputy CM didn't reach. Finally they were left disappointed as Tejashwi preferred not to share the dias with Kanhaiya at the programme.

FIR against SP's husband for assault

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun

RENU Lohani, superintendent of police (SP) of vigilance sector Dehradun, has filed a case against her husband Amit Shah, who is the head of dental department at Doon Medical College, on charges of assault and abuse. On the other hand, to avoid possible arrest immediately after the case was registered, the SP's husband obtained a stay from the court of Dehradun district judge Pradeep Pant.

According to the report, "SP Renu was supposed to go to Nainital on May 17. She went to her husband's official residence in the campus along with father-in-law DL Shah to collect clothes. Shah was present there."

When the SP asked him the reason for not going to the office, it is alleged that during this time the doctor became furious. The father intervened and asked them to calm down. It is alleged that Shah lost his temper and started abusing his father and his wife. It is alleged that the he punching Renu, grabbed her hair, dragged out of the room and tried to attack her with a knife. Probe is on under various sections including murderous assault.

A controversy over the correct 350th anniversary of the coronation of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj erupted in presence of CM Eknath Shinde and Deputy CM Devendra Fadnavis at the Raigad fort on Friday morning. Historian Indrajit Sawant said the coronation happened on June 6, 1674, hence the 350th anniversary would fall next year whereas, the BJP said as per the Hindu calendar, the anniversary of his coronation falls on June 2 this year so they chose this day. | PTI

'Colonial legacy can't be taken as reason'

THE Commission headed by former Karnataka High Court Chief Justice Ritu Raj Awasthi, in its report, said merely being a colonial legacy cannot be a valid ground for the repeal of Section 124A (sedition) of the Indian Penal Code. It went on to claim that the law is a reasonable restriction on the fundamental right to freedom of speech and expression.

The report also said repealing Section 124A merely because certain countries have done so would essentially mean turning a blind eye to the realities in India. It recommended the Centre to issue model guidelines to curb the misuse of Sec 124A.

"A comparison of the sentences as provided for the offences in Chapter VI of the IPC suggests that there is a glaring disparity in the punishment prescribed for Section 124A. It is, therefore, suggested that the provision be revised to bring it in consonance with the scheme of punishment provided for other offences under Chapter VI. This would allow courts greater room to award punishment for a case of sedition in accordance with the scale and gravity of the act committed," the report said.

The Law Commission also suggested amending Section 154 of the Code of Criminal Procedure to the effect that an FIR under Section 124A would be registered only after a police officer, not below the rank of Inspector, conducts a preliminary inquiry.

Recognition of school caught in row cancelled

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

THE Madhya Pradesh government has suspended the recognition of a central government-aided school in Damoh district which is embroiled in a row for allegedly forcing girl students to wear 'hijab' and making students sing Muhammad Iqbal's poem "Lab Pe Aati Hai Dua."

However, the suspension by the joint director (public education) in Sagar division, has nothing to do with the twin controversies confronting the Ganga Jamna Higher Secondary School. Instead, it pertains to violation of MP Secondary and Higher Secondary Schools Recognition Rules 2017 and Amended Rules 2020.

As per the order signed, it has been found that school doesn't possess library, laboratory, toilet, sports and classroom seating facilities in line with the related rules.

Keeping in mind those findings, the recognition of the school (with the MP Board of Secondary Education) is being suspended with immediate effect, the order mentioned.

Meanwhile, the central government-aided minority school, which was already grappling with the row over allegedly forcing non-Muslim girls to wear 'hijab,' is in the mid of another controversy, over alleged singing of Muhammad Iqbal penned poem "Lab Pe Aati Hai Dua" by students in prayers and other events.

The controversy in Damoh district of the state, happened almost six months after a government school principal in UP's Bareilly district was suspended by the state's education department following complaints by right-wing Hindu outfits about school students singing "Lab Pe Aati Hai Dua" in assembly.

CM Shivraj Singh Chouhan said, "It's yesterday only that I came to know about daughters being forced to come with their heads covered at a school, which was also teachwing the poem of the man who got the country partitioned. I want to warn everyone that such acts won't be allowed in MP. Only that education policy, which has been implemented by PM Modi, will be applicable in the state."

After 3 blasts, security tightened at Golden Temple

TAKING NO CHANCES

FOOTFALL IN GOLDEN TEMPLE

1.25 lakh devotes visit daily

2.50 lakh devotes visit on weekends

4 to 5 lakh on gurupurabs

Keeping in view the Operation Bluestar Anniversary week also known as Ghallughara week, Punjab Police have beefed up the security across the state to ensure peaceful observance of this week. Special DGP Law and Order Arpit Shukla said that as many as 110 flag marches were conducted yesterday covering 192 sensitive areas in all the 28 districts.

A radical Sikh organization Dal Khalsa has given a call for Amritsar bandh on June 6 to mark the 39th anniversary of Operation Bluestar by putting up hoardings and posters across the city. It's volunteers distributed pamphlets to seek their support for bandh.

In May this year, two minor blasts ocured within 30 hours near Golden Temple. Both the blasts caused minor injuries to one person each and took place on the Heritage street – a 800-metre walkway from the Town Hall to the Darbar Sahib.

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

FOLLOWING a security scare after three low-intensity blasts rocked the area around the Golden Temple, 50 high resolution CCTVs are being installed at the galliara around the complex and Heritage Street by the Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee (SGPC). It has been decided to install scanners at all the entrances to secure devotees and visitors.

In another first, dedicated women personnel have been deployed to check the ladies.

In addition, a giant LED screen has been set up that will flash multi-lingual 'dos and don'ts', besides the significance of the shrine and the maryada (tenets) that have to be observed in the complex.

"This step has been taken after the recent low intensity blasts around the golden temple,'' said an SGPC official.

Now, at all the entry points of the temple, the task force of the SGPC is frisking devotees who enter the temple complex to pay their obeisance, with men being checked randomly. They are also checking all bags being carried inside, said sources.

Sources added that in its executive meeting some time back, the SGPC decided to install body and luggage scanners at all the entrances of the Golden Temple. However, it would be ensured that devotees don't get inconvenienced.

Sources said that the intelligence network has been also strengthened in collaboration with the police to ensure a robust security apparatus.

The first explosion near the Golden Temple occurred on May 6, and the second on May 8. The third blast took place on May 11. Five people were held following the same, with the police claiming that the case stood solved.

Govt gets its act together as Kolkata tops in number of TB cases in state

PRANAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

KOLKATA recorded the highest number of patients infected with tuberculosis (TB) in the state last year, posing as a major concern for the West Bengal health department officials.

According to the data available with the health department, Kolkata's number of TB patients in 2022 increased fourfold as compared to the number of infected patients in 2016.

The Kolkata Municipal Corporation (KMC) identified seven pockets across the city, where large number of shanties is located, likely to be a hot spot of the TB cases reported.

According to the data, from January 1 and December 31 in 2022, a total of 12,829 people were infected with TB and 272 died.

"Not only controlling the spread of TB, curbing death due to the disease is also a major challenge to us," said an official of the state health department. After Kolkata, Murshidabad and North 24 Parganas districts are at the second and third position respectively in terms number of TB infected patients.

"Malnutrition, smoking and working in manufacturing units with high pollution-level are the main causes behind the bacterial disease.

We generally observe surge in this disease in backward districts like Purulia, Bankura, Murshidabad and West Midnapore because of acute malnutrition problem there. But the record showing Kolkata's picture is alarming," said another official.

The KMC has already started a survey to identify the source of the bacterial disease. "If we can identify the source of the disease, the job of controlling it will become easier," said a health department official.

STEADY RISE IN NUMBERS

YEAR	INFECTED PATIENTS
2016	3,160
2018	4,840
2020	5,230
2022	12,829

Main affected areas

Metiabruz, Tiljala, Chetla, Kalighat, Beleghata, Bengachia, Cossipore

KMC divided the capital in 10 zones and has set up separate teams to launch massive awareness campaign, including door-to-door visits

Peace deal must include Russia's withdrawal: US

Stronger Ukraine a prerequisite for talks with Kremlin, says Blinken

HELSINKI

US Secretary of State Antony Blinken said on Friday there can be no ceasefire in the war in Ukraine unless it is part of a "just and lasting" peace deal that includes Russia's military withdrawal.

Blinken said "a ceasefire that simply freezes current lines in place — and enables Putin to consolidate control over the territory he has seized, and rest, rearm, and reattack — that is not a just and lasting peace."

Russia must also pay a share of Ukraine's reconstruction and be held accountable for launching its full-scale invasion of its neighbour in February 2022, Blinken said in a speech during a visit to Finland.

Allowing Moscow to keep the one-fifth of Ukraine territory it has occupied would send the wrong message to Russia and to "other would-be aggressors around the world," according to Blinken. Washington is ready to support peace efforts by other countries, including recent overtures from China and Brazil, he said. But any peace agreement must uphold the principles of sovereignty, territorial integrity and independence.

"When you look at President Putin's long-term strategic aims and objectives, there is no question: Russia is significantly worse off today than it was before the full-scale invasion," Blinken said at Helsinki City Hall before a stage of US flags.

"Where Putin aimed to project strength, he has revealed weakness. Where he intended to divide, he has united," he said.

America's top diplomat insisted that a strong Ukraine was a prerequisite for talks with Russia, hoping to preempt pressure for a quick ceasefire that he warned would bring only a "Potemkin" or fake peace.

"Precisely because we have no illusions about Putin's aspirations, we believe the prerequisite for meaningful diplomacy and real peace is a stronger Ukraine — capable of deterring and defending against any future aggression," Blinken said.

The push to broker an end to the war is likely to grow with next year's US presidential campaign, in which Donald Trump has denounced President Joe Biden's arming of Ukraine and voiced expectation that Russia will triumph. AFP

US seeks nuclear arms talks with Russia

Washington: The White House is ready to have talks with Russia without preconditions about a future nuclear arms control framework even as it is enacting countermeasures in response to Russian President Vladimir Putin's decision to suspend the last nuclear arms control treaty between the two countries.

Ukraine says downed all missiles in new attacks

Kyiv: Ukraine said on Friday it destroyed all 15 missiles and 21 drones from a new wave of overnight attacks in Kyiv. "The occupiers don't stop trying to terrorise the capital of Ukraine with attack drones and missiles," the air force said. "All 15 cruise missiles and 21 attack drones were destroyed," it added.

Johnson offers all unredacted WhatsApp texts to Covid panel

LONDON

BORIS Johnson, who was the British prime minister during the height of Covid, on Friday handed over all his unredacted WhatsApp messages to public inquiry set up to probe the government's handling of the pandemic.

The latest move further complicates matters as it bypasses the Rishi Sunak-led government's decision to seek a judicial review into inquiry chair Baroness Heather Hallett's order for all such messages to be handed over. The UK Cabinet Office had said in a statement that government officials should not be required to provide material that is "irrelevant." "While I understand the government's position, I am not willing to let my material become a test case for others when I am perfectly content for the inquiry to see it," said Johnson.

The 58-year-old former prime minister said he was handing over "all unredacted WhatsApps" he provided to the Cabinet Office and said he has asked it to hand over his notebooks, which he no longer has access to. Johnson also said that he would "like to do the same with any material that may be on an old phone, which I have previously been told I can no longer access." Johnson says he has asked the government for help to turn on the device securely to hand over the material. AFP

PTI PARTY PREZ PARVEZ ELAHI RE-ARRESTED

LAHORE

THE President of Imran Khan's Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) party Parvez Elahi was on Friday arrested again minutes after a judicial magistrate here ordered his release in an embezzlement case.

Elahi was a day earlier arrested outside his residence in Punjab province in the Rs 70 million corruption case related to the embezzlement of development funds allocated for the Gujrat district.

He was re-arrested by officials of the Anti-Corruption Establishment (ACE) Punjab in a corruption case registered against him in Gujranwala, Geo News reported.

Judicial Magistrate Ghulam Murtaza Virk issued Elahi's release order while announcing the verdict he had reserved on a plea seeking the PTI leader's physical remand. "Parvez Elahi should be released if he is not wanted in any other case," the verdict said.

Murtaza had reserved the verdict after hearing the former Punjab chief minister's case, where ACE Punjab requested the court for his 14-day physical remand. Elahi's counsel Advocate Rana Intizar informed the court that all documents related to the projects were available.

"Anti-corruption watchdog is introducing its own law under which the judge hearing the cases will be of their choice," the council said, adding that on January 17, a payment worth Rs 360 million was made when Naqvi was the chief minister. PTI

Start-up VC funding down 88% in Jan-May

Start-ups secured only 252 funding rounds in this period against 840 rounds a year ago, as per Tracxn data

2021	14.1	693
2022	15.8	840
2023	1.9	252

Source: Tracxn

THE funding winter for Indian start-ups lingers on, as the total venture capital (VC) investments fell 88% to $1.9 billion in the first five months of this year compared to $15.8 billion in the same period last year.

As per market intelligence firm Tracxn data, start-ups secured only 252 funding rounds between January and May 2023, as against 840 rounds in the year-ago period.

VC funding in domestic start-ups hit a record-high of $15.8 billion in January-May 2022 and it was $14.1 billion in 2021. Private equity (PE) investments in these start-ups during the same period this year stood at $2.3 billion, 81% fall, as against $12 billion in the same period last year. Due to this funding squeeze, which started from the third quarter of CY2022, has led to layoffs and restructuring exercises in start-ups. Moreover, both start-ups and VCs are concerned about the proposed changes in angel tax.

The tax department recently announced the exclusion of Singapore, Mauritius, Netherlands and Luxembourg from the list of countries exempted from Angel tax. These jurisdictions are the biggest contributors to foreign direct investments (FDI) in start-ups.

From the beginning of this year, foreign VC funding in Indian start-ups has been declining. "VC funding in India, similar to around the world, took a major hit, largely driven by rising interest rates, correction from digitisation overpromise of the post Covid-19 world and an uncertain geopolitical landscape. Global institutional investors generally became more conservative, decreasing allocations from riskier asset classes like venture capital," said Shauraya Bhutani, co-founder, Capital Connect Advisors.

He added that even within the remaining venture capital allocation, many global investors from developed markets preferred to invest in their home markets, which they consider to be safer. A combination of these reasons has brought down foreign VC funding in India in recent years. No start-ups have gained status of unicorns so far this year as against 15 and 13 unicorns between January-May 2022 and 2021, respectively.

"Bond market or rise in interest rates has made some foreign investors to hedge their portfolio on somewhat stable earning potential. India is a large market, while the world economy is down, India is still looking good on macro levels, though investments have slowed down, we expect it to get better in 2024," said Anil Joshi, Managing Partner, Unicorn India Ventures.

Indian airlines expand international footprint, add new destinations

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

'Will directly touch 32 overseas destinations'

With this expansion in network, IndiGo chief executive officer Pieter Elbers said the airline will now be directly touching 32 international destinations (up from 26), next to its 78 domestic destinations

THE Indian airlines are expanding their footprint on international routes.

After Tata group-owned Air India and Vistara added more flights on some of their international routes, the country's largest carrier Indigo has decided to add 174 new weekly international flights between June and September 2023.

Indigo has added six new destinations across Asia and Africa. It will connect Nairobi, Kenya, Jakarta, and Indonesia, with direct flights from Mumbai in late July / early August and Delhi would get connected in August to Tbilisi, Georgia & Baku, Azerbaijan and in September to Tashkent, Uzbekistan, and Almaty, Kazakhstan. It will resume daily services from Delhi to Hong Kong in August. This flight was suspended three years ago due to Covid. "With this expansion in network, we will now be directly touching 32 international destinations (up from 26), next to our 78 domestic destinations," said Pieter Elbers, CEO, IndiGo. The fresh expansion comes days after IndiGo took delivery of its first wide-body aircraft, a Boeing 777, which has a seating capacity of 400 passengers.

"Indigo had guided to add 10-15 new destinations in FY24 and six have already been added on the international side. The aim is to increase international ASK (average seat kilometre) share to 30% in next two years (23% in FY23). Given the expansion that is happening on the international side we believe Indigo is well on track to achieve the guidance," said Jinesh Joshi – Research Analyst, Prabhudas Lilladher. Besides launching more direct flights to Middle Eastern destinations, IndiGo will rasie frequencies between Mumbai-Dhaka in August 2023. IndiGo has already been strengthening connectivity in Europe and North America via its codeshare connections via Turkish Airlines.

Not only IndiGo, Tata Group airlines are also expanding their presence in overseas routes. Air India is set to reinstate three more weekly flights to the US this month while Vistara on Thursday inaugurated its non-stop flights between Mumbai and London Heathrow Airport.

Aviation minister Jyotiraditya Scindia had recently urged airlines to grow on international routes, rather than over competing in the domestic market.

Tatas to set up ₹13K cr Lithium-ion cell plant in Gujarat

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

AGRATAS ENERGY STORAGE SOLUTIONS, a subsidiary of Tata Group, will set up a lithium-ion cell manufacturing facility in Gujarat.

According to the official statement by the Gujarat government, the manufacturing facility will have an initial capacity of 20 GW and it will cost ₹13,000 crore. Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel, in a tweet, said a memorandum of understanding (MoU) was signed on Friday between the state government and Tata Group to set up the country's first lithium-ion cell manufacturing factory in Gujarat. "This MoU, which is the result of the state's new electronics policy, will involve establishment of a 20 GW plant in the first phase, requiring an investment of ₹13,000 crore. The project aims to generate large-scale employment opportunities," tweeted Patel in Gujarati.

As per the joint statement on the MoU between Tata's unit Agratas Energy Storage Solutions and the Gujarat government said that work on the plant was expected to start in less than three years. The MoU is also a step taken by the state government to reduce carbon emission.

Moreover, the project will also fulfil the target of Prime Minister Narendra Modi to achieve 100% electric vehicle adoption and reduce carbon emissions by 50% by 2030, ultimately working towards net-zero carbon emissions. "With the state government's commitment to reducing carbon emissions through the promotion of electric vehicles, the reliance on lithium-ion batteries is expected to grow significantly as the usage of EVs increases," said Patel.

The MoU was signed by Vijay Nehra, the Secretary of Science and Technology, Government of Gujarat, and Rakesh Ranjan, the CEO of Agratas Energy Storage Solutions. The new plant will generate 13,000 direct or indirect employment in the state, the statement said.

Last year, a joint venture of Vedanta and Taiwanese electronics manufacturing giant Foxconn announced ₹1,54,000 crore investment to set up a semiconductor ecosystem in Gujarat. They had signed a MoU with the state government for the semiconductor and display manufacturing unit. The unit is expected to generate around one lakh job opportunities.

SHARES SURGE ON WALL STREET RALLY

Asian stock markets jumped on Friday following trends on Wall Street ahead of a US jobs update after Federal Reserve officials reignited hopes another interest rate increase might not take place. Tokyo, Hong Kong, Shanghai and Seoul markets advanced after US lawmakers approved a deal to avert a government debt default. Japanese index Nikkei 225 jumped 1.21% to 31,524.22 on positive global cues. The Shanghai Composite Index gained 0.8% to 3,230.07 while Hang Seng in Hong Kong went up 4.02% to 18,949.94. South Korean index Kospi jumped 1.25% to 2,601.36 and the S&P ASX 200 in Sydney rose 0.48% to 7,145.10. On Wall Street, benchmark S&P 500 index rallied 1% on Thursday after data showed manufacturing and retail activity weakening. The US debt deal relaxed the threat of default that roiled markets last week.

ECONOMY SHOWS 'TENTATIVE SIGNS OF IMPROVEMENT': IMF

The International Monetary Fund (IMF) has said debt-ridden Sri Lanka's economy is showing tentative signs of improvement. It, however, underlined that this reform momentum must continue under strong ownership by both the authorities and the Sri Lankan people. IMF Deputy Managing Director Kenji Okamura on Thursday said the current economic crisis has its genesis in policy missteps aggravated by external shocks. He said IMF believes it is essential to protect the poor and the most vulnerable that have been disproportionately affected by the crisis. Continued open dialogue with the creditors will help reach restructuring agreements, Okamura. The country is still struggling to normalise its crisis-hit economy after it declared its first-ever debt default in April last year.

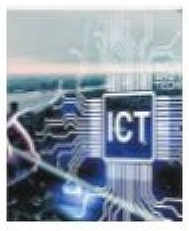
MALAYSIA

ECONOMY TO GROW 4.5% IN 2023: IMF

The International Monetary Fund (IMF) raising several challenges facing the country for the rest of the year has said the Malaysian economy will grow by 4.5% in 2023. The country's growth reached 8.7% in 2022 driven by pent-up domestic demand following the reopening of the economy in April 2022. The global fund said the recovery post-pandemic remains uneven, with agriculture, mining, and particularly construction sectors remaining below pre-Covid levels. Another concern for the country is inflation remained high this year, the IMF said. However, it said that inflation has shown signs of moderation. The IMF recognised Malaysia's recent fiscal consolidation but emphasised that more structural improvements are needed in the long run.

Electronics mfg sector provides 25 lakh jobs in India: Vaishnaw

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi



TELECOM minister Ashwini Vaishnaw on Friday said electronic manufacturing sector provides jobs to 25 lakh people in the country, and out of them 70% to 80% are women.

Vaishnaw, while addressing a press conference here, also said every month a new tech-giant announces investing plans in India. "There are 25 lakh jobs alone in the electronic manufacturing sector. There are factories where around 20,000 people work. Out of them about 70-80% are women workers. Every month big companies announce their manufacturing plans in India. Recently, Cisco made an announcement to invest in India," said Vaishnaw.

Vaishnaw comments came after former governor of Reserve Bank of India (RBI) Raghuram Rajan questioned India's rising mobile phone export. In FY23, phone imports were down to $ 1.6 billion, while phone exports were up to nearly $11 billion. Net exports were thus $ 9.8 billion, a turnaround of $ 13.1 billion from 2017-18. Rajan said the growth in mobile export is propelled by assembly rather than manufacturing in the country.

IRDAI asks SBI Life to take over Sahara India life insurance business

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

THE Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (IRDAI) on Friday asked SBI Life Insurance to take over Sahara India Life Insurance's (SILIC) business, including 2 lakh policies, with immediate effect.

The decision was taken at the meeting of the IRDAI in view of deteriorating financial health of the SILIC. "The Authority has identified SBI Life Insurance Company (SBI Life), which is one of the largest life insurers in the country with satisfactory financials, as the acquirer insurer of the life insurance business of SILIC. SBI Life shall take over the policy liabilities of around two lakh policies of SILIC, backed by the policyholders' assets, with immediate effect," IRDAI said in its order.

In a statement, the IRDAI said it has also taken necessary steps to ensure the smooth transition for all policyholders of SILIC.

"We are pleased to welcome these new customers to the SBI Life Insurance family and assure them of high levels of service and commitment. We have started and we are expeditiously working on the process of integrating these policyholders in our systems," said SBI Life Insurance in a statement.

In 2017, due to certain issues on the financial propriety and governance aspects of the insurer, the regulator had appointed an administrator to manage the business of SILIC.

The insurer was not allowed to underwrite any new business. Further directions were issued to the insurer to meet the regulatory requirements. In July 2017, the insurance regulator had issued similar kind of order of take over SILIC business by ICICI Prudential Life with effect from Jul 31, 2017.

Bonus pay: IT firm HCLTech reverts to pre-pandemic policy

UMA KANNAN @Bengaluru

IT company HCLTech is reverting its performance bonus policy from 100% Engagement Performance Bonus (EPB) to performance-linked variable pay as it was during pre-pandemic.

This change has been strongly condemned by Nascent Information Technology Employees Senate (NITES), as it claimed this will reduce the salaries of some employees. The employee union has filed a complaint with the Ministry of Labour and Employment against HCLTech.

According to NITES, this is a violation of ethical employment standards.

"These changes have unethically resulted in a reduction in the salaries of employees, contrary to the promises made by the company during their recruitment. Under the previous policy, the company assured employees that the EPB would be paid at a fixed rate on a monthly basis, even if employees were on the bench," NITES said.

A copy of the email sent to employees by HCLTech, reviewed by TNIE, said, this change was effective from April 2023.

NITES said the company has abruptly altered the policy, implementing a quarterly performance review process to determine EPB payouts. The new policy bases the EPB payout on employee ratings, which range from 80-90% for top performers and a mere 30-40% for the lowest performers.

Meanwhile, a spokesperson from HCLTech told this newspaper, "At HCLTech, we have always offered an Engagement "Performance" Bonus (EPB) as part of our total compensation package up to the E3 band. EPB is 3-4% of total compensation, and the average payout is nearly 80%."

"Our employment contract identifies EPB as performance-linked variable pay, and this is governed by company policy. To support employees during the pandemic, it made a policy exception and paid 100% EPB irrespective of performance."

Cybersecurity risks: RBI issues draft rules on digital payment

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

THE Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Friday proposed to establish robust governance mechanisms for authorised non-bank Payment System Operators (PSOs) to effectively address emerging cybersecurity risks.

RBI has issued a 'Draft Master Directions on Cyber Resilience and Digital Payment Security Controls for Payment System Operators'.

The draft comes after the central bank, during the April monetary policy meeting (MPC), announced that it would issue these guidelines.

The draft directions cover governance mechanisms for the identification, assessment, monitoring and management of cybersecurity risks, including information security risks and vulnerabilities. They also specify baseline security measures to ensure safe and secure digital payment transactions.

"These directions aim to improve safety and security of the payment systems operated by PSOs by providing a framework for information security preparedness with an emphasis on cyber resilience," RBI said. The RBI has invited stakeholders to provide feedback on the draft by June 30. It said existing instructions concerning security and risk mitigation for card payments, prepaid payment instruments (PPIs) and mobile banking will remain in effect.

"To identify, monitor, control and manage cyber and technology related risks arising out of linkages of PSOs with unregulated entities, who are part of their digital payments ecosystem, PSOs shall ensure adherence to these directions by such unregulated entities as well, subject to a mutual agreement," the draft directions said.

Additionally, as per the draft, PSOs will be required to develop an approved Cyber Crisis Management Plan (CCMP) to detect, contain, respond to, and recover from cyber threats and attacks.

Retail investors subscribe CIL offer-for-sale 1.4 times

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

THE offer for sale (OFS) of Coal India Ltd (CIL) on its second day received stellar response as it was subscribed 1.4 times by the retail investors.

With this, the government expecting to raise more than ₹4,000 crore. The government will offload 3% equity in CIL including a green shoe option of 1.5%. CIL shares closed flat on Friday at ₹230.9 per share on the BSE. "The second day of CIL OFS closed with good interest from retail investors with 1.4 times subscription. We thank investors for their participation," Tuhin Kanta Pandey, DIPAM secretary said in a tweet.

Against allotted shares of 185 million for retail investors, the OFS received subscription requests for 259 million shares at an indicative price of ₹226.1. The OFS on Thursday got bids from institutions for 287.6 million shares against 184.8 million on offer, at an indicative price of ₹226.47 a share against floor price of ₹225. Non-retail investors bid for 5.12 crore shares on the second day.

Go First submits re-launch plan with DGCA, may restart ops from mid-June

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

CASH-STRAPPED airline Go First has submitted its re-launch plan with the aviation regulator DGCA and is aiming to restart operations in the middle of June.

According to the submitted re-launch plan, which needs approval of the regulator and committee of creditors, the grounded carrier will restart flying with 26 aircraft and will operate over 150 daily flights.

Prior to grounding on May 3, Go First was operating nearly 200 flights daily.

Half of its 50 plus aircraft fleet was grounded due to non-supply of engines by Pratt & Whitney.

The Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) is likely to take a call on the re-launch plan by the end of next week. According to a source, the airline is also in discussions with lenders for funds to meet the working capital requirements.

The airline stopped flying from May 3 and is undergoing voluntary insolvency resolution process. It is yet to pay some senior level executives and pilots.

The source also said the airline management is awaiting the nod from the Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) for the revival plan and operations will resume soon after the regulator's approval. The aviation sector regulator is said to have raised certain queries and sought clarifications on the revival plan, and those have been addressed. Go First was granted bankruptcy protection on May 10. The airline has extended its flight cancellation until June 7, 2023 due to 'operational reasons'.

Zadran helps Afghanistan beat Sri Lanka in 1st ODI

Sri Lanka has several headaches ahead of its World Cup qualifiers in two weeks' time after suffering a heavy six-wickets defeat against Afghanistan on Friday. Set a target of 269, Afghanistan got there with 19 deliveries to spare to take the opener of the three-match one-day international series. Ibrahim Zadran was the hero for the visitors, top scoring with 98 runs.

WRESTLING STARES AT UNCERTAIN FUTURE

With just a week left to conduct elections, India's grapplers may face the ignominy of playing under a neutral flag

FIROZ MIRZA @Chennai

Top wrestlers have been forced to protest multiple times since the start of the year

INDIAN wrestling heading towards suspension if elections are not held soon. The Indian Olympic Association (IOA) has not yet named a returning officer (a high court judge) to begin the Wrestling Federation of India election process. The IOA had formed an ad hoc committee on April 27 and had said that a retired high court judge would be appointed soon to conduct the elections. However, the 45-day deadline that had been communicated to the United World Wrestling is ending on June 10.

If suspended, it might create a problem for Indian wrestlers to qualify for the Olympics. Without a federation, qualification will depend on UWW's sole discretion. The only solace is that the Olympic qualification for wrestling starts from World Championships in September.

The UWW in its statement, issued on May 30, indicated what lies in store for the country's grapplers. "The 45-day deadline that was initially set to hold this elective assembly shall be respected. Failing to do so may lead UWW to suspend the federation, thereby forcing the athletes to compete under a neutral flag," the statement read.

"It is reminded that UWW already took a measure in this situation by reallocating the Asian Championship planned in New Delhi earlier this year," it added.

Already in a mess since the protest broke out in January, the warning means Indian wrestling may touch a new low if the situation persists as grapplers will be left with no option but to compete under the neutral flag unless elections are held within the deadline. Notably, a minimum of 21-day notice has to be given to call an annual general meeting (AGM) to hold the elections. Apart from this, the UWW has to be intimated in advance so that it can send an observer for the election. Given the situation, it looks highly unlikely election can be held in the stipulated time.

What's interesting is that the ad-hoc committee will be occupied with U-15 and 20 selection trials for the upcoming Asian Championships from June 5 to 8. Soon after that, it will get busy with teams departing for the U-17 and 23 Asian Championships scheduled from June 10 to 18 in Bishkek. After that, it will be holding selection trials for the Asian Games in six weight categories followed by trials in the remaining four weight categories to declare teams for the World Championships.

"Our priority is to carry on with the activities. We had already organised trials for U-17 and 23 wrestlers. We will soon hold trials for U-15 and 20 wrestlers. Asiad trials are also pending. As far as elections are concerned, the process could begin once the retired High Court judge is appointed," Bhupender Singh Bajwa, a member of the ad-hoc committee, told this daily.

The controversy has already started to take a toll on wrestlers' performance and the biggest example was freestyle wrestlers' below-par show at the Asian Championships in April where they finished seventh among the participating nations. The previous worst was in 2018 when they ended eighth but back then India didn't send its best team for varied reasons. In between these two extreme ends, the country's freestyle team had finished second for four consecutive years.

It would be too early to comment on the ongoing Ranking Series in Bishkek but results from the first two days of the competition are not encouraging at all. India have fetched only a bronze medal so far with all three women wrestlers in action on Day 2 bowing out in either the first or second round.

Handling Dukes ball key: Former Oz asst. coach Sriram

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @Chennai

INDIA and Australia will lock horns to decide the champion team in the world of Test cricket in less than week at the Oval in London. While India are without the services of Jasprit Bumrah, KL Rahul, Shreyas Iyer and Rishabh Pant — all are yet to recover from injury — the Rohit Sharma-led side is still a formidable one.

Cheteshwara Pujara had gone early to England to play County Cricket and the rest of the Indian team left in several phases after the league stage of the 2023 IPL came to an end. Its been the same case with the Australian team as well, but most of their players were not a part of the IPL and are likely to be mentally fresh for the World Test Championship final.

That said, Sridharan Sriram, former assistant coach of the Australian team, insists that it will be a battle of equals and the team that adapts to the conditions will emerge victorious. "Acclimatising to the conditions and the Dukes ball will be key," he told this daily. "Indians as well as the Aussies have been doing their own individual preparations apart from playing in the Indian Premier League. Aussie bowlers maybe a bit more fresher compared to the Indian bowlers. Having said that, Mohammed Shami, Mohammed Siraj, R Ashwin and Ravindra Jadeja are in great form with the ball."

WTC Watch

Sriram believes that Steve Smith and Marnus Labuchagne will be key for Australia with the bat. "Cameron Green has been in good form. Travis Head can be dangerous with the ability to take the game away in a short span of time. David Warner and Usman Khawaja can be vulnerable early in England to the Dukes ball against Shami and Siraj. That is something India will look to take advantage of."

While there is a possibility of Indian playing both Ashwin and Jadeja, Sriram said that the playing XI would depend on the surface and weather, adding that The Oval rarely hosts a Test match in the month of June. Sharma and Warner has not been in good form off late, but Sriram said that it is not something teams would lose sleep over.

"Both Warner and Sharma are quality players and both will get their preparations organised as they normally do before any Test match," he said before adding that the tactical battle between Pat Cummis and Sharma is one to watch for.

WTC FINAL AGAINST INDIA IS OUR GRAND FINAL: LYON

MELBOURNE: Off-spinner Nathan Lyon doesn't believe Australia's preparations for the World Test Championship final will be affected by the talk around the Ashes, terming the upcoming contest against India as "grand final". "Yes, we are playing the Ashes but we've got a big game that we're up for. This (WTC final) is our grand final, and then our season basically starts again," Lyon was quoted as saying by Australian Associated Press. "That's probably where we're quite happy with where we're at with our planning. We are able to understand what we've got around the corner, and be OK. It's exciting to be part of the final and the fanfare and stuff around it, it's bloody special."

AUSTRALIA UNSURE ABOUT INDIA'S BOWLING LINE-UP

LONDON: Talking to local media prior to Australia's training session at the Kent County Cricket Ground in Beckenham on Thursday, assistant coach Daniel Vettori said the team management had a lot of discussion about India's probable bowling attack. "We have been debating that," Vettori said. "I think (Ravindra) Jadeja will play because of the batting he brings to the table and how successful he has been at that No.6 position. Then the question will be around that fourth seamer and the all-rounder in (Shardul) Thakur and R Ashwin, but they are (both) pretty good choices."

Shweta to lead India A in Emerging Asia Cup

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

U19 WORLD CUP star Shweta Sehrawat has been named as the captain for the India A team for the Emerging Asia Cup that is set to happen in Hong Kong from June 12. Madhya Pradesh star all-rounder Soumya Tiwari will be her deputy with Nooshin Al Khadeer as the head coach.

The Delhi batter, who led India U19 against the New Zealand Development Squad in last November before Shafali Verma was named as captain for the WC, was a part of the UP Warriorz in the Women's Premier League. While she might not have lit the stage on fire in the WPL, she had put up dominating performances in the World Cup, and so did Tiwari. Among the other stars who stole the limelight in the WPL, Royal Challengers Bangalore's all-rounder Shreyanka Patil and Kanika Ahuja, Warriorz's leggie Parshavi Chopra have earned their call-up for the tournament.

The bowling attack for the team remains similar to that of the U19 World Cup with Mannat Kashyap, Titas Sadhu and Yashasri securing their spots in the squad. Pacer Kashvee Gautam of Chandigarh who had taken all 10 wickets in a one-dayers a couple of years ago has also been included in the squad along with B Anusha, a left-arm spinner from Andhra. India are in Group A with hosts Hong Kong, Thailand and Pakistan, while Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Malaysia and the United Arab Emirates are in Group B. The final will be played on June 21.

INDIA 'A' (EMERGING) SQUAD

Shweta Sehrawat (c), Soumya Tiwari (vc), Trisha Gongadi, Muskan Malik, Shreyanka Patil, Kanika Ahuja, Uma Chetry (wk), Mamatha Madiwala (wk), Titas Sadhu, Yashasri S, Kashvee Gautam, Parshavi Chopra, Mannat Kashyap, B Anusha. Head Coach: Nooshin Al Khadeer

UTT: Sreeja to play for Dabang Delhi

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

The player draft for season four of the UTT league was held in Mumbai on Friday

2022 Birmingham Games medallist Sreeja Akula was signed by Dabang Delhi while Nigeria's Quadri Aruna will play for U Mumba TT in the season four of the Ultimate Table Tennis league as the player draft came to an end on Friday. The UTT Season 4 is scheduled at the Balewadi Sports Complex in Pune from July 13.

With the fourth season happening after a span of four years (the last edition was in 2019), Sharath Kamal (Chennai Lions), Sathiyan G (Dabang Delhi), Manika Batra (Bengaluru Smashers) and Manav Thakkar (U Mumba TT) had been retained by the respective teams ahead of the draft. Each team allowed to pick four Indians (two male and female) and a couple of overseas stars (one male and female) in the draft.

Anthony Amalraj and Harmeet Desai, both part of the India team that won bronze in the 2018 Asian Games, and Spain's Alvaro Robles were signed by Goa Challengers.

The first player to be picked up in the draft was Egypt's Omar Assar, who was followed by Thailand's Suthasini Sawettabut. Assar was signed by Puneri Paltan while Goa secured the services of Suthasini. Yangzi Liu from Australia will be Sharath's teammate in Chennai, USA's Lily Zhang went to U Mumba and Archana Kamath was selected by Pune.

Bengaluru Smashers owner Punit Balan was happy with the squad they have put together. "We got the players we had in mind. All the teams are balanced. Besides, of course, Manika, I am looking forward to Kirill, who can be dangerous for other foreign players. He has been promising at the UTT. He will be the main player to watch out for from our team, besides Manika," Balan said.

SQUADS

Bengaluru Smashers: Manika Batra, Kirill Gerassimenko (Kazakhstan), Sanil Shetty, Natalia Bajor (Poland), Poymantee Baisya, Ankur Bhattacharjee; Chennai Lions: Sharath Kamal, Yangzi Liu (Australia), Benedikt Duda (Germany), Sutirtha Mukherjee, Payas Jain, Prapti Sen; Dabang Delhi TTC: Sathiyan G, Sreeja Akula, Barbora Balazova (Slovakia), Ayhika Mukherjee, Anirban Ghosh, Jon Persson (Sweden); Goa Challengers: Suthasini Sawettabut (Thailand), Harmeet Desai, Alvaro Robles (Spain), Reeth Tennison, Kwittwika Sinha Roy, Anthony Amalraj; Puneri Paltan TTC: Omar Assar (Egypt), Manush Shah, Archana Kamath, Snehit SFR, Anusha Kutumbale, Hana Matelova (Czech Republic); U Mumba TT: Manav Thakkar, Lily Zhang (US), Quadri Aruna (Nigeria), Diya Chitale, Mouma Das, Sudhanshu Grover.

Medal-less second day for India in Bishkek

BISHKEK: Sajan Bhanwal made a spirited comeback after trailing 0-7 but lost steam in the second period of his bronze medal play-off after three Indian women wresters (Sonam, Nisha Dahiya and Priya) made early exit as India endured a medal-less day at the UWW Ranking Series event here on Friday. Greco Roman wrestler Bhanwal, competing in 77kg weight category, lost 5-7 against China's Rui Liu. Vikas lost the 72kg bronze play-off to Georgia's Otar Abuladze.

Aditi cards 67, lies 2nd in Americas Open

NEW JERSEY: India's Aditi Ashok shot a bogey-free five-under 67 to lie second at the Mizuho Americas Open golf tournament here. The lone Indian on the world's biggest professional stage of women's golf, Aditi was lying second behind leader Lauren Hartlage (65). As Hartlage shot her career-best round on the LPGA with five birdies and an eagle and no bogeys, Aditi had five birdies and no bogeys and was two behind at the iconic Liberty National Golf Club.

Lakshya enters Thailand Open semifinals

BANGKOK: Star Indian shuttler Lakshya Sen stormed into the semifinals of Thailand Open Super 500 tournament with a straight game demolition of Malaysia's Leong Jun Hao in men's singles here on Friday. The 21-year-old from Almora punched the air after unleashing a jump smash which sealed his 21-19, 21-11 win over the qualifier from Malaysia in the quarterfinals. Kiran George's giant run, however, came to an end after he went down 16-21, 17-21 against Toma Junior Popov of France.

PRO LEAGUE

Harmanpreet shines as India beat Belgium 5-1

AGENCIES @London

CAPTAIN Harmanpreet Singh struck a brace as India stunned Olympic champions Belgium 5-1 to bounce back from back-to-back defeats in their European leg of the the FIH Pro League here on Friday.

Midfielder Vivek Sagar Prasad gave India the lead in the first minute of the game, before Harmanpreet (20th and 29th min) scored twice from penalty corners.

Amit Rohidas (28th) and Dilpreet Singh (59th) were the other Indian goal scorers.

William Ghislain (45th) scored the lone goal for Belgium in the opening minute of the fourth quarter.

India, who had come to Europe as Pro League table toppers, had lost the opening game of the European leg to Belgium 1-2 on May 26 before going down to Great Britain 2-4 the next day. India play Great Britain again on Saturday.

PART II OF CITY'S TREBLE QUEST TODAY

Manchester City's quest for a treble continues at Wembley on Saturday. A look at some of the keys players who could decide the FA Cup final between Pep Guardiola's men and Manchester United...

ERLING HAALAND

It's hard to look beyond the Norwegian, who has already set multiple records this season. What's more, he already has a hat-trick to his name against the rivals from earlier in the season. Having not had too many league minutes in May, he will be raring to go in the first of two finals they have in a week.

BRUNO FERNANDES

If United had more reliable centre-forwards this season, Fernandes would have had more assists this season. Even then, the Portuguese has ticked on, starting attacks before laying on goal-scoring opportunities. How he escapes the attentions of Rodri could be key to how competitive United are on Saturday.

MARCUS RASHFORD

Having got key minutes in his legs following the muscle injury, the attacker's pace and directness could cause some problems to England teammate Kyle Walker who starts on City's right-hand side. Rashford has enjoyed some success against Guardiola's City and will be looking to inflict more pain.

KEVIN DE BRUYNE: City's bellwether player. If he plays well, it generally means they play well. He not only sets the tempo in midfield but also sets the tone for much of what they do in the forward areas. There's a slight injury concern but expect him to feature prominently.

2018 This is Man United's first FA Cup final since 2018

0 Man City are yet to concede in this year's edition

MENTAL HEALTH

Post win, Sabalenka skips press duties

AFP @Paris

Novak Djokovic beat Alejandro Davidovich Fokina 7-6, 7-6, 6-2 on Friday | AFP

BELARUSIAN star Aryna Sabalenka refused to do an official post-match press conference after her French Open match on Friday, claiming she "did not feel safe" when previously questioned about the war in Ukraine.

The world number two did not comment on reports she supports Belarus strongman Alexander Lukashenko and refused to "flatly condemn" Russia's invasion of Ukraine when asked by a reporter in a press conference on Wednesday. Belarus is a key military ally of Russia in the conflict.

Sabalenka said Roland Garros organisers had supported her decision not to undertake traditional press duties, instead speaking to a group of selected media following her third-round win over Kamilla Rakhimova. "For many months now I have answered these questions at tournaments and been very clear in my feelings and my thoughts," said Sabalenka, who has met Lukashenko in the past. "These questions do not bother me after my matches. "I know that I have to provide answers to the media on things not related to my tennis or my matches, but on Wednesday I did not feel safe in press conference. I should be able to feel safe when I do interviews with the journalists after my matches. For my own mental health and well-being, I have decided to take myself out of this situation today."

Sabalenka on Wednesday was asked why in 2020 she "signed a letter to support Lukashenko" when "he was torturing and beating up" protestors in the street. "I have no comments to you, so thank you for your question," she replied. It is not clear if Sabalenka will resume official media duties following her tie against either Sloane Stephens or Yulia Putintseva on Sunday. Select results (3rd Rd): Men: Novak Djokovic bt Alejandro Davidovich Fokina 7-6(4), 7-6(5), 6-2, Lorenzo Sonego bt Andrey Rublev 5-7, 0-6, 6-3, 7-6(5), 6-3; Women: Aryna Sabalenka bt Kamilla Rakhimova 6-2, 6-2, Elina Svitolina bt Anna Blinkova 6-2, 2-6, 7-5.

DAY'S DIARY

First US spacewalk

On this day in 1965, Major Edward H White II opens the hatch of the Gemini 4, becoming the first American astronaut to walk in space

CIRCLING THE EARTH

White spent 20 minutes floating in space attached by a 23-feet tether and 25-feet umbilical, with the world far below. He circled the Earth at a speed of 17,000 miles per hour

MAN BEHIND THE MISSION

Ed White was among NASA's Astronaut Group 2 for the Gemini programme; He met his fateful end as a senior pilot of the first Apollo mission

GEMINI PROGRAMME

NASA's Gemini programme was the least famous of the US-manned projects. It laid groundwork for the Apollo lunar missions, in 1968

Pearl tops, blouses or even stoles made of pearl...these stone-studded outfits have become a thing in the fashion scene

FASHION PEARLS OF WISDOM

MONIKA MONALISA

Shalini Parupudi

Alia Bhatt

Jahnvi Kapoor

KIM Kadarshian and Alia Bhatt wore it at the 2023 Met Gala. Deepika Padukone, Janhvi Kapoor, Kriti Sanon and Kiara Advani wore it for various events. Pearls are here to stay, but this time as an outfit. Pearl tops or blouses have become a popular thing at red-carpet events.

The craze has caught up with many fashionistas in the city, like Shalini Parupudi, a fashion blogger. "I keep tab on what is trending in the fashion scene. Pearls are the latest thing right now, and I've seen multiple influencers and celebrities styling it. What I really like is the versatility. Pearls give that glam look to simple dresses. For example, I have a pearl belt which can be styled in different ways to get day and evening looks," says Parupudi.

With Indians having a particular body type, it can be tricky to style pearls. Fashion stylist Zoya Joy says one has to be careful about how to style it. "Mostly, women who explore the options are in the age group of 20-35. It goes wrong when people go for a boxy blouse which isn't great and does not fit well. A lot of designers are trying to fit in a lehenga blouse which can be an option," says Joy, adding that the Met Gala this year had some fun pearl outfits. "Kim Kadershian at the MET Gala 2023 had great looks. Alia Bhatt wore a pretty dress but the styling was boring," she adds.

While many are going for outfits and jewellery in pearls, makeup artist Rashida Pavtiwala tried to get a look with a pearl headgear. "Pearls are so in right now and people are using it for their outfits and accessories. But I'm using a pearl headgear that is inspired by Jennifer Lopez's look from the 2022 movie, Marry Me," says Pavtiwala.

Being a makeup artist, she emphasises that basic makeup is sufficient when one is wearing pearls. "It's best to opt for nude makeup. For eyes, the classic smokey brown works well," says Pavtiwala.

STYLE CHECK

If you have a pearl top, here are multiple ways to style it

Bored of your LBDs or a solid colours? Add a pearl top over that dress to get a new look

Pair it with a blazer and denims for a brunch look

You can wear it as a saree blouse that can give that edgy and cocktail look

QUICK FIX

AVOCADO BROWNIES

Contributed by Sneha Sri, Hyderabad

INGREDIENTS:

- Avocados (Ripened, peeled and pitted): 2
- Coconut sugar: 1/3 cup
- Coconut oil: 3 tbsp
- Pure maple syrup: 1/4 cup
- Sea salt: 1/2 tsp
- Almond flour: 1/2 cup
- Baking soda: 1 tsp
- Pure vanilla extract: 1 tsp
- Baking powder: 1 tsp
- Unsweetened cocoa powder: 1/2 cup + 2 tbsp
- Espresso/ Instant coffee powder: 1 tsp
- Chocolate chips (semi sweet/ dark): 1/2 cup

METHOD

- Preheat the oven to 350° F.
- In a blender / food processor, place the avocados, coconut sugar, maple syrup, coconut oil, almond flour, vanilla extract, cocoa powder, baking soda, baking powder, sea salt and chocolate chips.
- Process until smooth and combined. Grease the pan with coconut oil or use parchment paper.
- Scrape the batter into the pan. Sprinkle a few chocolate chips on top if you like it more chocolaty.
- Bake it for 25-30 minutes. Check with a toothpick to see if the brownies are done.
- Take them out and cool completely. You can eat it warm or refrigerate for three hours.

PADMA BHUJANGASANA VARIATION

(LOTUS IN COBRA POSE VARIATION)

It is a combination of two of Hatha Yoga's foundation poses – Padmasana and Bhujangasana – that together create an intermediate level posture, which offers an intense forward bend and strong stretch for the hips, knees, and shoulders.

STEPS

- Sit comfortably in Padmasana and remain here for a few deep breaths.
- Then keep your hands behind your knees while pushing by your palms or fingers, and shift your weight to your knees.
- When you lift off your sitting bones, move your hands to the front.
- You can lean forward with the help of your knees. Try to adjust your knees and hands as per your need on the floor.
- During the process, you have to keep your arms straight along with your hands equal to the shoulders position.
- Start lowering your torso down and keep your hips off the floor in Padmasana.
- Now keep your palms on the floor and your fingers pointing in a forward direction.
- Straighten your arms fully and make sure that you should not bend your elbows.
- Make sure your head, neck, spine, hips and thighs are straight in one line, gazing forward.
- Remain in the pose around 30 to 60 seconds or as much as you can but breathe deeply.
- To come out from the pose, keep your torso slowly onto the ground. Put your hands down and come to the initial position and relax.

BENEFITS

- It stretches and strengthens your abs, shoulders, glutes, quads, chest, lower back, groin, inner thighs, and spine.
- This asana directly targets your quads, lower back, inner thighs and your chest.
- This pose is a good chest opener exercise.
- It helps to relieve anxiety, fatigue, and stress.
- It is more beneficial in lower back problems.
- This asana boosts the capacity of your lungs.
- It is more helpful and best for asthmatic patients.

LIMITATIONS

In this pose, you should not arch your back or neck.

People who have any back injury, frequent headaches and carpal tunnel syndrome (CTS), avoid practising this asana.

Pregnant women are advised strictly to avoid this asana.

THE ACTOR BAGS HER FOURTH PROJECT BEFORE THE RELEASE OF HER DEBUT

PRIYANKA KUMAR JOINS RISHI IN RUDRA GARUDA PURANA

CE FEATURES

RISHI'S upcoming action film, directed by Nandish, has been officially titled Rudra Garuda Purana. The grand muhurath for the film took place on Friday, in the presence of special guest Sathish Ninasam. Nandish, known for films like Chambal and Dear Vikram, is helming the project, produced by Lohit. The film will see Rishi portraying a police officer once again, following his role in Kavaludaari.

Despite initial hesitations, Rishi found the story to offer a unique perspective, exploring themes from Garuda Purana such as Karma, Paava, and Punya. The film also welcomes Priyanka Kumar, marking her fourth project even before her debut release. The Bad Manners actor expressed her excitement for her role as a homely girl, distinct from her previous films.

Shivaraj KR Pete and Pawan will also be seen in pivotal roles in the film. The shooting of the film has begun, and the next schedule will be planned after Rishi finishes his current project with Prashanth Rajappa and the release of his upcoming film, Ramana Avatara.

JK's IRavan gets a release date

A SHARADHAA

JK, also known as Jayaram Karthik, is gearing up for the release of IRavan. The actor, known for his work on television and the big screen, announced that the movie will hit theaters on June 16. During a media interaction, the cast members expressed their excitement about the upcoming release.

"I am immensely grateful for the positive response to the teaser of IRavan. Some people had misconceptions, thinking it might be a dubbed Hindi film, but I want to clarify that it is indeed a Kannada film. It features a suspenseful thriller storyline, and my character has two shades. Director Ram's Ranga has crafted an excellent story, complemented by good songs," said JK.

The director revealed that IRavan draws inspiration from a character in the Mahabharata and offers a thrilling suspenseful storyline. "We shot the film in various locations such as Bengaluru and Mangalore, with a significant portion filmed at sea," he added.

"As a doctor by profession, I was deeply moved by the story of IRavan when director Ram's Ranga narrated it during the challenging times of the Covid pandemic. I believed that producing this film could benefit many people. With the collaboration of the film crew, we have successfully brought the story to life, and now it is ready for release," stated producer Dr. Niranthara Ganesh.

A still from IRavan

A riveting thriller with bold performances and intriguing twists

A SHARADHAA

IN the vast realm of Bollywood, where remakes of foreign films have become a common practice, the Spanish thriller masterpiece, The Invisible Guest, found its way to the Indian silver screen as Badla. However, while Badla opted for a simplistic copy-and-paste approach, merely changing the names of the characters and genders, the Telugu adaptation, Evaru, took a gamble by introducing a few modifications to the original version. And now, after five years after the release of Evaru, the Kannada film presents its own rendition, titled Yadha Yadha Hi.

The intriguing tale commences with a riveting scene at a tranquil spa in the picturesque hill station of Munnar. Priyanka Shetty (Hariprriya) is seen pulling the trigger on Assistant Commissioner of Police Aditya Varma (Vasishta Simha). Priyanka Shetty happens to be the wife of a wealthy businessman named Rahul, while Aditya Varma hails from the bustling city of Bengaluru, serving as an ACP. Shockingly, Priyanka Shetty claims that her act of cold-blooded murder was a response to Aditya Varma's heinous crime of raping her. Desperate for help, she seeks the assistance of Ashok Teja (Diganth), who is shown to us as a corrupt police inspector notorious for aiding the accused in exchange for monetary benefits.

Priyanka implores Ashok to ensure that no evidence surfaces to incriminate her in the eyes of the public prosecutor. At this critical juncture, Ashok Teja divulges a shocking secret involving a missing person's report filed by a teenager named Adarsh Bhat from Coonor. He also reveals the hidden truth about Priyanka Shetty's husband. Unaware to Priyanka, Ashok skilfully manipulates her emotions, coercing her to disclose the whereabouts of Avinash Bhat's (Avinash) body, a person who mysteriously vanished. As she desperately tries to maintain her innocence and avoid confessing, Ashok Teja persistently pressures her to reveal the dark truth. Who exactly is Ashok Teja, and what fate awaits Priyanka Shetty? These questions form the crux of Yadha Yadha Hi.

Credit must be given to the original writer of the Spanish film, who etched a conversational crime story. Since Yadha Yadha Hi is an adaptation, it does have a ready reckoner in place, which the filmmaker could have made good use of. However, director Ashok Teja stumbles when it comes to ensuring a crisp screenplay. The plotline is marred by excessive twists and turns, occasionally leaving the audience confused. For instance, the film introduces Adarsh Bhat as a character who seeks Ashok Teja's assistance in investigating the disappearance of his father, only to later reveal that Ashok Teja himself is, infact, Adarsh Bhat. Furthermore, the film suffers from its duration, as it could have benefited from some trimming to maintain a more engaging experience.

When it comes to performances, Hariprriya's acting, which sees a blend of determination, vulnerability, and cunning, command attention. As a heroine, she has a substantial full-length role that showcases her talent after a considerable time. Her chemistry with Vasishta is palpable, and their on-screen dynamic works seamlessly. Vasishta Simha in the limited space he is given, puts forth his best effort to display his acting prowess. Diganth, on the other hand, ventures into uncharted territory, portraying a character that embodies both positive and negative shades. His convincing portrayal and ample screen time allow him to make the most of this opportunity, eliciting both appreciation and laughter. In particular, his performance during scenes where he portrays a cancer patient deserves special recognition. Yogi's cinematography captures the mood of the thriller. He along with Sricharan Pakala's and Harsha Vardhan Raj's musical score enhances its atmospheric appeal. For those, who have not seen the Hollywood film, The Invisible Guest, the Hindi version, Badla, or the Telugu hit, Evaru, the Kannada version will be an engaging one-time watch.

A natural and emotionally charged tale

A SHARADHAA

PINKI Elli? is a film that has already gained international acclaim and garnered numerous accolades at various film festivals. The title, Pinki Elli? (Where is Pinki?), may seem simple, but it unveils a web of complex and heartwarming stories woven together in a captivating narrative, and it is clear why the film made such a resounding impact.

The movie takes us on a journey through the lives of various individuals, each grappling with their own struggles. We witness the anguish of a grieving mother, the determination of a woman fighting to support her sick son, the turmoil within a husband dealing with family issues, the search for love by a young woman, the entanglement of a man in a complicated relationship, and the sorrow of a childless woman. This diverse range of characters and their intertwining narratives provides a profound and insightful exploration of different worlds.

Life in a city is rife with complexities, and Pink Elli? delves into these complexities with great sensitivity. Bindu (Akshata Pandavapura), the child's mother, who finds the necessity to take up a job, entrusts her 8-month-old baby, Pinki, to a caretaker Sannamma (Gunjalamma). However, upon returning home one day, Bindu is shocked to find that Pinki is missing and the caretaker has vanished. The overwhelming distress faced by the mother becomes a central theme, interwoven with the journeys of other characters. Prithvi Konanur naturally weaves these narratives, creating an emotional tale that also unfolds like a suspenseful thriller without relying on conventional commercial formulas, immersing the audience in a unique cinematic experience.

Pinki Elli? stands out by avoiding melodrama, instead opting for a natural and authentic portrayal of emotions. The film's strength lies in its ability to depict the highs and lows of these characters' lives in a genuine manner. Shot entirely with sync sound, devoid of background music and dramatic dialogues, Pinki Elli? relies on its screenplay to intensify each scene. The central question of Pinki's whereabouts and the disappearance of Sannamma looms over the film, keeping the audience intrigued until the very end. Prithvi's directorial finesse shines through, eschewing commercial gimmicks to evoke suspense and at the same time address human experiences.

Pinki Elli? is a film that defies traditional character archetypes and storytelling conventions. One of the film's most intriguing aspects is the attention-commanding nature of each character. Pinki Elli? ignores the traditional hero-villain dynamic, deliberately abstaining from taking sides. This departure from conventional narratives leaves viewers pondering the true nature of each character, fostering a deeper engagement with the story. The film organically reveals that what may seem virtuous in one context can be perceived as wicked in another, presenting a thought-provoking exploration of morality without forced manipulation.

The performances in Pinki Elli? are commendable, with Akshata Pandavapura delivering a delicate and nuanced portrayal of Bindu, the child's mother. Deepak Subramanya as Bindu's husband Manjunath and Anup Shoonya as Girish, a close friend, leave a lasting impression with their commitment to their respective roles. Notably, the film features non-professional actors, including Gunjalamma, Anasuya, Sangamma, and Lakshmi Narayan, who bring authenticity and depth to their characters, enriching the overall narrative.

The commitment to realism is evident throughout Pinki Elli? from the carefully chosen locations to the technical craftsmanship. Cinematographer Arjun Raja and editor Shivkumar Swamy have meticulously captured the essence of the story, using evocative visuals and precise editing to fulfill.

Inspired by a true incident, Pinki Elli? sheds light on rare and lesser-explored aspects of life. It doesn't rely on overt dialogues to deliver its messages; instead, they are skillfully woven into the fabric of each scene. This organic approach allows the audience to discover and interpret these messages in their own way, adding another layer of depth to the film.

The impact of Pinki Elli? lingers long after the credits roll. The next time you see a woman at signals carrying a baby on her shoulders, and begging, this film will surely come to mind. It challenges preconceived notions, urging us to question and examine our own understanding of morality.

THE ROOF HAS BEEN RAISED

PRASHANTH VALLAVAN

WHENWhen Spider-Man: Into The Spider-Verse was released in 2018, the seismic impact of the film was so magnificent that it rippled across the animation industry for years afterwards and still continues to do so. By fusing art styles from hand-drawn to digital, and by playfully using classic comic book elements like panelling and typography, the animators created a daring animation style that brought fresh new energy to the industry. If that wasn't impressive enough, the film had a well-written story, a focused creative vision, a deep understanding and respect for the Spider-Man mythos, and a killer soundtrack.

Sequels to such widely appreciated films usually crumble under the weight of expectations. The anxiety to go bigger in scale, faster in rhythm, and higher in stakes, are usually conspicuous in sequels. While Across the Spider-Verse does strive to push past the scope and scale of the first film, it does so with meditative confidence. The film begins with an erratic pace and then towards the middle we find ourselves in moments of stillness where we could feel the story taking in a huge breath and exhaling slowly. These moments of calmness are carefully chosen to punctuate beautiful character moments, like when Miles Morales spends time with Gwen Stacey, when a frustrated Officer Morales shares his parenting woes with Spider-Man, or when Miles' mom imparts heartfelt wisdom to her son. These are also the moments where we could sit back and let the visual splendour of the Spider-Verse arrest us with awe.

The first film was all about how Miles Morales deals with the expectations levied upon him. The second film goes a bit liberal with the number of themes it focuses on. It is about Miles learning to stand up for himself, Gwen longing to fit in, and fathers (Jeff Morales, Peter Parker, George Stacey, Miguel O'Hara) struggling to learn the complexities of parenthood. Even though every character goes through their own overarching journey and even though all of their stories are interestingly fleshed out, the web of themes, laid on top of each other, makes it an overwhelming experience to take it all in simultaneously. And on top of all of that, the central point of contention between Miles and the primary antagonist Miguel O'Hara (Oscar Issac) happens to be a variation of a trolley problem, where Miles is forced to decide between one life and a million others. While the use of such a philosophical quandary is not unusual for a superhero film, the exposition (Miguel O'Hara's backstory) to explain why the villain takes the opposite stance to the hero sounds all too familiar. However, the film wins us over by showing us Miles' wonderful character evolution and how he builds up the resolve and confidence to stand up for what he believes in.

At a crucial point in the film, after outsmarting almost a hundred other Spider-Man variants, Miles says to Miguel, "Everyone keeps telling me how my story is supposed to go. Nah, Imma do my own thing." The brilliance of the film is in how that line could have easily come off as a typical punch-line. Instead, Miles delivers that line with a beautiful blend that goes from inner turmoil, self-doubt, disappointment at being betrayed, to confidence, unshakeable resolve, and unstoppable will. Moments like these tell us that the sublimity of a great performance could be captured through the hands of an artist tracing a line as much as the eyes of a performer. If there ever was a debate about animation being any less of an art form than live-action films then the Spider-Verse films echo as a resounding laughter on the face of such a question.

Whenever Hollywood is fascinated by an idea, it milks it dry until the shrivelled-up corpse of the idea is then repurposed to create parodies. You can see decades dotted with the rise and fall of ideas on films like time travel, simulation theory, and fourth wall breaking. A recent idea to go through this cycle is the 'multiverse'. In the past few years, the idea of multiple universes and "variations" of familiar characters, have been used in a number of superhero films in rapid succession. It is hard not to shirk the thought that maybe this idea is being used as a convenient tool to retcon stories, add cameos for marketing purposes, recast actors without disturbing the ongoing storyline, and even erase entire lists of films that the studio executives are embarrassed about. What started out as a fun idea has become a shallow corporate tool to sell more content. Across the Spider-Verse is inundated with loads of cameos and callbacks to earlier films, you could hear the pre-programmed cheers already surging up when these moments have barely registered on screen. Despite all of that, it is undeniable that this film has exploited the 'multiverse' concept better than almost any other superhero film so far. You could see that by stripping away the cameos, references, and even the fact that it is a Spider-Man film. This could just be a story about a kid called Miles Morales who goes on an interdimensional adventure and it still holds up as a solid film with a lot of heart. And that's how Across the Spider-Verse wins us over.
